Chapel Messages:

Preparation for Life and Ministry Danny McCain, 2009 Preparation for Life and Ministry is all about life and service and what it takes to get set for both. And the setting for this material is apt. Each of these messages was first preached in an institutional chapel. So this book is a collection of future shaping messages preached by Danny McCain in many chapels over a decade. Chapels associated with institutions tend to bring people of diverse denominational backgrounds together and therefore they tend to focus on unifying themes rather than divisive themes. This compilation reflects the diversity within the body of Christ and therefore makes this book a gift to the whole body of Christ. From rear cover of book Tozer Speaks to Students A. W. Tozer, 2010-01-01. Except for C. S. Lewis and Oswald Chambers it is difficult to find a 20th century Protestant author who has a wider audience than Tozer. With more than 3 million books in print the works of Tozer find their place on library shelves literally around the world. However it is less well known that Tozer had a particularly profound impact on college students. This volume consists of never before published chapel messages and sermons preached during 1952 and 1954 at Wheaton College. In many ways Tozer's messages are just as timely today as they were a generation ago. Notes compiler and editor Dr. Lyle Dorsett. The truths are timeless. It is my prayer that he will speak to you with the same life changing power that he spoke to his generation.

Messages for Broken Women and for Those Walking Alongside Them Patsy Welch, 2020-07-08. Patsy Welch ministered at a homeless shelter in Dallas, Texas for almost ten years, working in the kitchen and providing chapel messages for the women there. This book is a product of those years. Through her own story and insights into God's Word she was able to connect with these women who struggled with so many complex issues and found themselves in hopeless desperation. With humor and realism she spoke to the problems they were experiencing with hope, joy, and encouragement. Their response to her was heartwarming and their response to the Savior, Jesus Christ, was awesome. Since these words seemed to have helped those who were down and out and needed to find their way in a difficult world, she wants to share them with other women who are broken and wanting to rebuild their lives on the principles of God's Word. Those who walk this journey with them will also find help, encouragement, and joy in these messages. To God be the glory.

Gameday Reverend Dr. Deland J. Myers Sr. Ph.D., 2023-06-18. Gameday 40 Devotional Messages for Spiritual Gameday. Preparation can be used by coaches, team chaplains, and others who work with student athletes as a supplement to prepare your team for competition on Gameday. This book will provide you with devotional messages to prepare the spirit of the team individually and collectively for the day of competition to supplement all of the efforts that have been put in to prepare the team physically, mentally, and spiritually. This book will not guarantee victory, freedom from mistakes, mistakes by officials, or increasing the players' team's statistics. I do believe, however, the words shared based on God's Word will encourage players to overcome the adversity that they will face and help prepare them for maximum effort and efficiency as they compete on Gameday.

God, Guts, and Gallantry Dr. Will Joslin, 2021-02-05. Major James Lide Coker of Hartsville

South Carolina was a gutsy man of God and an entrepreneurial genius who founded 20 successful businesses He grew up in the Old South but became one of the most forward thinking leaders of the New South His business odyssey alone makes a fascinating story but his expansive heart and keen intellect reached well beyond commerce He was a passionate leader of the Christian faith a pace setter in women s education and a progressive in race relations Ahead of his times in every way he concluded his own book on the Civil War with these words There is one great result of the war between the States for which we are truly thankful slavery is abolished Though high born he and his family were brought low In the Civil War he bravely defended his homeland fighting with Robert E Lee and Stonewall Jackson in Virginia where his brother was killed In Tennessee James s left thigh was shattered at the Battle of Lookout Mountain and he became a prisoner of war Delirious with pain he had several harrowing escapes from death before finally returning home to Sherman devastated South Carolina He had lost almost everything including the use of a leg But with extraordinary valor he rose up with a crutch and a hoe to re establish his farm and went on to lead the economic educational and spiritual rebound of his region in a time of crisis and carpetbaggers James became the wealthiest man in South Carolina yet remained humble and down to earth His war agonies and innate sensitivity to human need enabled him to identify with the harshest realities of the human condition and with the plight of the disenfranchised When his ingenious and diligent post war initiatives brought him rivers of prosperity he let them flow through him to bless countless others in his rural state A deeply spiritual man Major Coker also faithfully taught the boys Sunday School for thirty eight years Today we have too few leaders of genuine integrity We need more like the Major rock solid gallant far sighted and good to the core For the benefit of present and future generations his inspiring story with fresh perspectives and previously unpublished material is retold in Dr Joslin s unique style blending biography daring adventure courageous faith and the drama of American history Christ and Our Life on Campus Clyde Norman Kraus,1963
