Communities of Kinship Carlo Calleja, 2024-03-12 In Communities of Kinship Retrieving Christian Practices of Solidarity with Lepers as a Paradigm for Overcoming Exclusion of Older People Carlo Calleja describes kinship as a moral category arguing that practicing kinship with others can cultivate virtues that shape the character of the agent Contemporary Western society tends to focus on kinship as the sharing of blood ties or genetic material On the other hand the spiritual kinship that is proposed by religions tends to be exclusive and often nominal For this reason Calleja proposes practices and structures of solidaristic kinship which involves sharing in the suffering of the other person Finding parallels between the exclusion of lepers and the efforts of Christian communities to reforge kinship bonds with them in ancient and medieval times he argues that communities of kinship with older persons can help cultivate the virtues needed for the flourishing of oneself and society

Character, Community, and Politics Clarke E. Cochran, 1982-03-30 A classic political philosophy text available again The revival of political philosophy has frequently assumed that a theory of human well being and fulfillment is necessary preoccupied with questions of epistemology and technical conceptual analysis In instances where the nature of the human good is considered the paradigm of autonomous individualism customarily dominates In Character Community and Politics Cochran moves away from these prevailing ideas to develop a communal theory of political order helping to redefine a number of fundamental but often neglected ideas Chief among them are commitment community responsibility and character concepts Cochran develops through discussions of authority freedom pluralism and the common good Drawing on a wide variety of fields such as philosophy ethics literature moral theology and sociology the author renews these concepts to outline a theory of human life and political order distinct from sclerotic categories such as conservatism socialism radicalism or Marxism
