Charades For Experts:

The Chairs Are Where the People Go Misha Glouberman, Sheila Heti, 2011-07-05 Should neighborhoods change Is wearing a suit a good way to quit smoking Why do people think that if you do one thing you're against something else Is monogamy a trick Why isn't making the city more fun for you and your friends a super noble political goal Why does a computer last only three years How often should you see your parents How should we behave at parties Is marriage getting easier What can spam tell us about the world Misha Glouberman's friend and collaborator Sheila Heti wanted her next book to be a compilation of everything Misha knew Together they made a list of subjects As Misha talked Sheila typed He talked about games relationships cities negotiation improvisation Casablanca conferences and making friends His subjects ranged from the sublime to the ridiculous But sometimes what had seemed trivial began to seem important and what had seemed important began to seem less so The Chairs Are Where the People Go is refreshing appealing and kind of profound It's a self help book for people who don't feel they need help and a how to book that urges you to do things you don't really need to do
