Edward Wall, 1995 Elite Business Schools Mikael Holmqvist, 2021-12-20 Social scientists are paying increasing attention to the business and financial elites There's a great need to understand who these elites are what they do and what makes them tick as individuals but also as a class By examining elite business schools the institutions that train and prepare people to assume important leadership and decision making positions in business finance and related sectors we may also learn how the economic elites are made A key argument in this book is that elite schools are known to create powerful groups in society offering them the intellectual and analytical means to act as leaders but most importantly the social moral and aesthetic skills that are deemed necessary to exercise power in all essential respects elite schools consecrate people By dominating much of higher education today and by doing so in a way that creates and reproduces a market based organization and control of society elite business schools represent certain interests and ideologies that affect the lives of most people In understanding how the modern economy is run elite business schools therefore represent critical study objects This book based on an in depth study of the Stockholm School of Economics SSE offers a sociological analysis of the world of elite business schools Specifically this book examines the consecration of SSE s students from a number of perspectives and in a number of situations focusing on student union activities school culture faculty behavior teaching courses and alumni events noting the symbolic importance of economics and particularly the school s unique relation among the world s business schools to the Nobel Prize The book addresses the topics with regards to the sociology of elites management education and organizational studies and will be of interest to researchers academics and students also interested in business history higher education studies and sociology of education
