The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries three stars good four stars excellent five stars masterpiece and yes author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing recommended acceptable cautionary and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre i.e. animated drama sports mystery adventure etc as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection.

Joseph Campbell, 2017 Many of American journalism's best known and most cherished stories are exaggerated dubious or apocryphal. They are media driven myths and they attribute to the news media and their practitioners far more power and influence than they truly exert. In Getting It Wrong writer and scholar W. Joseph Campbell confronts and dismantles prominent media driven myths describing how they can feed stereotypes distort understanding about the news media and deflect blame from policymakers. Campbell debunks the notions that the Washington Post's Watergate reporting brought down Richard M. Nixon's corrupt presidency that Walter Cronkite's characterization of the Vietnam War in 1968 shifted public opinion against the conflict and that William Randolph Hearst vowed to furnish the war against Spain in 1898. This expanded second edition includes a new preface and new chapters about the first Kennedy-Nixon debate in 1960 the haunting Napalm Girl photograph of the Vietnam War and bogus quotations driven by the Internet and social media.
