As an Equal? Rosie Cox,Nicky Busch,2018-11-15 Au pairs are relied upon by tens of thousands of UK families to do everything from childcare and housework to elder care pet feeding and waiting at dinner parties Traditionally thought of as privileged and well educated young women having fun on a gap year abroad au pairs have been excluded from many of the recent discussions on migrant domestic labour However since 2008 au pairing has been effectively unregulated in the UK and the result is that au pairs now constitute one of the poorest paid and least protected groups of workers Through an examination of lived experiences As an Equal draws on detailed research to examine au pairs and the families who host them in contemporary Britain revealing au pairing to have become increasingly indistinguishable from other forms of domestic labour Crucially hosting an au pair is shown to form part of families attempts to provide good enough childcare in the context of extended working hours and poor public childcare provision This increased reliance of families on an exploited workforce is shown to form part of the wider political climate of economic austerity and raises profound questions about the position of women within the neoliberal economy

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
