August Heinrich Hoffmann Von Fallersleben:

National Monuments and Nationalism in 19th Century Germany Hans A. Pohlsander, 2008 No century in modern European history has built monuments with more enthusiasm than the 19th Of the hundreds of monuments erected those which sprang from a nation wide initiative and addressed themselves to a nation rather than part of a nation we may call national monuments Nelson s Column in London or the Arc de Triomphe in Paris are obvious examples In Germany the 19th century witnessed a veritable flood of monuments many of which rank as national monuments These reflected and contributed to a developing sense of national identity and the search for national unity they also document an unsuccessful effort to create a genuinely German style They constitute a historical record quite apart from aesthetic appeal or ideological message As this historical record is examined German national monuments of the 19th century are described and interpreted against the background of the nationalism which gave birth to them

The Complete Songs of Hugo Wolf Richard Stokes, 2021-10-08. The Complete Songs of Hugo Wolf gathers together for the first time every poem Wolf set to music. Alongside the original German texts are translations by leading Lieder expert Richard Stokes who also provides illuminating commentary. The 36 poets set by Wolf are each given their own chapter; a brief essay on the poet is followed by a note on Wolf's connection with the writer, extracts from letters that throw light on the songs and convey his mood at the time of composition, and the texts and translations. Short biographies of all Wolf's correspondents flesh out the extraordinary life of this genius. This will be an indispensable volume for all lovers of Lieder.

The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964 Literary Translation and Cultural Mediators in 'Peripheral' Cultures Diana Roig-Sanz, Reine Meylaerts, 2018-07-20. This book sets the grounds for a new approach exploring cultural mediators as key figures in literary and cultural history. It proposes an innovative conceptual and methodological understanding of the figure of the cultural mediator defined as a cultural actor active across linguistic, cultural, and geographical borders, occupying strategic positions within large networks and being the carrier of cultural transfer. Many studies on translation and cultural mediation privileged the major metropolis of Paris, London, and New York as centres of cultural production and translation. However, other cities and megacities that are not global centres of culture also feature vibrant translation scenes. This book abandons the focus on innovative centres and imitative peripheries and follows processes of cultural exchange as they develop. Thus, it analyses the role of cultural mediators as customs officers or smugglers or both in different proportions in so-called peripheral cultures and offers insights into an under-analysed body of actors and institutions promoting intercultural transfer in often multilingual and less studied venues such as Trieste, Tel Aviv, Buenos Aires, Lima, Lahore, or Cape Town.

Brahms Patriotic and Political David Brodbeck, 2025-06-10. Offers a historical context in which to understand how Brahms's three most intensely political and nationalistic works interact with questions of German patriotism, liberalism, and nationalism. Johannes Brahms rarely composed music that engaged the national political issues of the day. Three of his works though do precisely this: the Fünf Lieder für Männerchor (the Triumphlied for eight-part chorus and orchestra) and the Fest und Gedenksprüche for eight-part chorus a cappella. In Brahms Patriotic and Political, David Brodbeck challenges notions that Brahms's political music evinces embarrassing anticipations of later Prussian militarism and German chauvinism Instead he provides a thick historical context in which to read these works and offers a more nuanced understanding of the intersections of Brahms's music and questions of German patriotism liberalism and nationalism than has been customary in the field of historical musicology In particular Brodbeck relates the Männerchor Lieder to the debate over how and in what form a German nation state might be achieved he relates the Triumphlied to the euphoria but also the solemnity that attended the foundation of the German Reich and he relates the Fest und Gedenksprüche to the necessary work of instilling in the diverse German people a genuine sense of national belonging At the same time he traces Brahms's changing attitude toward Otto von Bismarck the Blacksmith of the Reich whom he originally loathed but in time came to venerate Brahms's Patriotic and Political will appeal to readers with interests in both nineteenth century German music and Central European history
