The Power of Character in Leadership Myles Munroe, 2014-01-01 How to Protect Your Leadership Influence and Power You've worked hard to achieve your dreams and goals Many others have done the same only to lose it all in the end Every day we read about successful people in various walks of life who have lost their power and influence They've been fired forced to resign or shamed out of public life They no longer have a market for their gifts and they may even face criminal proceedings These leaders have lost the trust of their companies constituents nations followers and families Many were surprised to discover that their talents alone were not enough to prevent their downfall Why did they fail in the end Because they lacked the one quality that would have protected their leadership and given them enduring influence Ironically this quality is seldom taught to leaders today either formally or informally It is the quality of moral force or character Every human being is a leader over some domain as he or she exercises gifts and influence That domain might be the halls of government the boardroom the classroom the community or the home In The Power of Character in Leadership How Values Morals Ethics and Principles Affect Leaders you will discover what character is what it means to develop moral force and how to preserve your leadership influence so that it is both effective and enduring
