Hilary N. Green

Charleston City Of Memory:

Charleston Harlan Greene,1987 Traces and Memories of Slavery in the Atlantic World Lawrence Aje,Nicolas Gachon,2019-06-28 Traces and Memories deals with the foundation mechanisms and scope of slavery related memorial processes interrogating how descendants of enslaved populations reconstruct the history of their ancestors when transatlantic slavery is one of the variables of the memorial process While memory studies mark a shift from concern with historical knowledge of events to that of memory the book seeks to bridge the memorial representations of historical events with the production and knowledge of those events The book offers a methodological and epistemological reflection on the challenges that are raised by archival limitations in relation to slavery and how they can be overcome It covers topics such as the historical and memorial legacy of slavery the memorialization of slavery the canonization and patrimonialization of the memory of slavery the places and conditions of the production of knowledge on slavery and its circulation the heritage of slavery and the re construction of collective identity By offering fresh perspectives on how slavery related sites of memory have been retrospectively re framed or re shaped the book probes the constraints which determine the inscription of this contentious memory in the public sphere The volume will serve as a valuable resource in the area of slavery memory and Atlantic studies

Journal of Proceedings of the ... Annual Encampment of the Department of Minnesota, Grand Army of the Republic ,1885 Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South Deborah C. Pollack,2015-01-18 Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South recounts the enormous influence of artists in the evolution of six southern cities Atlanta Charleston New Orleans Louisville Austin and Miami from 1865 to 1950 In the decades following the Civil War painters sculptors photographers and illustrators in these municipalities employed their talents to articulate concepts of the New South aestheticism and Gilded Age opulence and to construct a visual culture far beyond providing pretty pictures in public buildings and statues in city squares As Deborah C Pollack investigates New South proponents such as Henry W Grady of Atlanta and other regional leaders she identifies cultural strivers philanthropists women s organizations entrepreneurs writers architects politicians and dreamers who united with visual artists to champion the arts both as a means of cultural preservation and as mechanisms of civic progress Aestheticism made popular by Oscar Wilde s southern tours during the Gilded Age was another driving force in art creation and urban improvement Specific art works occasionally precipitated controversy and incited public anger yet for the most part artists of all kinds were recognized as providing inspirational incentives for self improvement civic enhancement and tourism art appreciation and personal fulfillment through the love of beauty Each of the six New South cities entered the late nineteenth century with fractured artistic heritages Charleston and Atlanta had to recover from wartime devastation The infrastructures of New Orleans and Louisville were barely damaged by war but their social underpinnings were shattered by the end of slavery and postwar economic depression Austin was not vitalized until after the Civil War and Miami was a post Civil War creation Pollack surveys these New South cities with an eye to understanding how each locale shaped its artistic and aesthetic self perception across a spectrum of economic political gender and race issues She also discusses Lost Cause imagery present in all the studied municipalities While many art history volumes concerning the South focus on sultry landscapes outside the urban grid Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South explores the art belonging to its cities whether exhibited in its museums expositions and galleries or reflective of its parks plazas marketplaces industrial areas gardens and universities It also identifies and celebrates the creative urban humanity who helped build the cultural and social framework for the modern southern city

My Memories of Eighty Years Chauncey Mitchell Depew, 1922 Unforgettable Sacrifice Hilary N. Green, 2025-02-25 2026 ASALH BOOK PRIZE FINALIST Rediscover the Civil War through the voices that refused to be silenced Unforgettable Sacrifice offers a groundbreaking exploration into the heart of African American memory of the Civil War challenging conventional narratives and revealing a rich history preserved through oral traditions and communal efforts Through extensive archival research and stories shared on the porches of African American families Hilary Green provides a detailed examination of how diverse Black communities across the United States have actively preserved and contested the memory of the Civil War from the nineteenth century to the present By rejecting the reduction of their experiences to mere footnotes in history African Americans have established a vibrant commemorative culture that respects the complexity of their ancestors sacrifices and struggles From the rural landscapes of Black Pennsylvanians to the heart of emancipated communities in the South Green connects the narratives of those who not only fought on battlefields but also in the realms of memory and heritage ensuring their stories of resilience courage and patriotism are remembered Unforgettable Sacrifice brings to light the untold stories of ordinary African Americans who took extraordinary steps in remembrance and resistance By refusing to accept diluted narratives and lies they have ensured the legacy of the Civil War includes the end of slavery the valor of Black soldiers and civilians and the ongoing struggle for democracy and full citizenship This book is a testament to the enduring power of memory and the steadfast spirit of the African American community It is an indispensable addition to the libraries of scholars general readers and descendant communities alike offering new perspectives on the lasting impact of the Civil War on American identity and the persistent pursuit of justice and equality

French Memories of Eighteenth-Century America Charles Hitchcock Sherrill, 1915 The U.S. South and Europe Cornelis A. van Minnen, Manfred Berg, 2013-11-28 The U S South is a distinctive political and cultural force not only in the eyes of Americans but also in the estimation of many Europeans The region played a distinctive role as a major agricultural center and the source of much of the wealth in early America but it has also served as a catalyst for the nation s only civil war and later as a battleground in violent civil rights conflicts Once considered isolated and benighted by the international community the South has recently evoked considerable interest among popular audiences and academic observers on both sides of the Atlantic In The U S South and Europe editors Cornelis A van Minnen and Manfred Berg have assembled contributions that interpret a number of political cultural and religious aspects of the transatlantic relationship during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The contributors discuss a variety of subjects including European colonization travel accounts of southerners visiting Europe and the experiences of German immigrants who settled in the South The collection also examines slavery foreign recognition of the Confederacy as a sovereign government the lynching of African Americans and Italian immigrants and transatlantic religious fundamentalism Finally it addresses international perceptions of the Jim Crow South and the civil rights movement as a framework for understanding race relations in the United Kingdom after World War II Featuring contributions from leading scholars based in the United States and Europe this illuminating volume explores the South from an international perspective and offers a new context from which to consider the region s history Nineteenth-Century American Activist Rhetorics Patricia Bizzell,Lisa Zimmerelli,2020-12-01 In the nineteenth century the United States was ablaze with activism and reform people of all races creeds classes and genders engaged with diverse intellectual social and civic issues This cutting edge revelatory book focuses on rhetoric that is overtly political and oriented to social reform It not only contributes to our historical understanding of the period by covering a wide array of contexts from letters preaching and speeches to labor organizing protests journalism and theater by white and Black women Indigenous people and Chinese immigrants but also relates conflicts over imperialism colonialism women s rights temperance and slavery to today s struggles over racial justice sexual freedom access to multimodal knowledge and the unjust effects of sociopolitical hierarchies The editors introduction traces recent scholarship on activist rhetorics and the turn in rhetorical theory toward the work of marginalized voices calling for radical social change Southern Telephone News ,1921 The Sanitorium ,1916 Gay & Lesbian Literature: Introduction to gay male literature Sharon Malinowski,Tom Pendergast,Sara Pendergast,1994 Biographical bibliographical and critical information on more than four hundred authors who have figured prominently in gay and lesbian literature and culture since 1900 Memories of My Youth, 1844-1865 George Haven Putnam,1914 Cleaning and Dyeing World ,1929 African Cities Through Local Eyes Giuseppe Faldi,Axel Fisher,Luisa Moretto,2021-10-16 This book provides readers with a wide overview of place based planning and design experiments addressing such powerful transformations in the African built environment This continent is currently undergoing fast paced urban institutional and environmental changes which have stimulated an increasing interest for alternative architectural solutions urban designs and comprehensive planning experiments The international and balanced array of the collected contributions explore emerging research concepts for understanding urban and peri urban processes in Africa discuss bottom up planning and design practices and present inspirational and innovative co design methods and participatory tools for steering such change through public spaces sustainable services and infrastructures The book is intended for students researchers decision makers and practitioners engaged in planning and design for the built environment in Africa and the Global South at large Memories of a South Carolina Plantation During the War Elizabeth Allen Coxe,1912 Rainbow Memories
