both in the Church and in the world Taking the Church Fathers as points of reference this book offers a detailed analysis of the view of marriage sexuality motherhood and women as constructed in Latin edifying writings of the time i e texts the author aims to examine whether and if so to what extent the attitude of the Carolingian Church was inspired by feelings of misogyny and misogamy In writings addressing the lay public such feelings may have been hidden for pastoral reasons Therefore attention was more particularly paid to the presence of misogyny and misogamy in texts which were
