Tips for Stay-at-Home Parents

Validate Volunteer Work:

Don't shortchange yourself! Whether or not you were paid to do something doesn't negate the fact that now it's part of your skillset.

1

2

Highlight Transferable Skills:

When presenting your strengths, identify what you bring to the table that will benefit a future employer.

Show Continuing Education:

Think broadly to give yourself credit for staying up to date. Include informal efforts such as reading trade journals and attending events held by professional associations.

3

Value Leadership Ability:

It may not have come with a VP title, but chairing the school's largest annual fundraising event or managing the spring kick-off event for the town athletic association leverages and taps into similar strengths.

Identify New Strengths:

Yes, you volunteered "for the children," but in the process you developed or refined skills in selling, marketing, negotiating, branding, customer relations, organization, leadership, and time management.
