With ... Plans. Second Edition, Produced Photographically by the Muston Company Guy LE STRANGE, 1924 Crisis and Continuity at the Abbasid Court Maaike van Berkel, Nadia Maria El Cheikh, Hugh Kennedy, Letizia Osti, 2013-07-11 The reign of al Muqtadir 295 320 908 32 is a crucial and controversial epoch in the history of the Abbasid empire Al Muqtadir s regime has traditionally been depicted as one of decline when the political power of the caliphate and the lustre of its capital began to crumble This book not only offers a substantial investigation of the idea and reality of decline but also provides new interpretations of the inner workings of the court and the empire The authors four specialists of Abbasid history explore the formal and informal power relationships that shaped politics at the court involving bureaucrats military harem courtiers and of course al Muqtadir himself A study of the topography of Baghdad completes this vivid picture of the court and its capital The Abbasid Caliphate Tayeb El-Hibri,2021-04-22 A history of the Abbasid Caliphate from its foundation in 750 and golden age under Harun al Rashid to the conquest of Baghdad by the Mongols in 1258 this study examines the Caliphate as an empire and an institution and its imprint on the society and culture of classical Islamic civilization The Early Abbasid Caliphate Hugh Kennedy,2016-03-17 The early Abbasid Caliphate was an important period for Islam The dynasty based in Baghdad ruled over a vast Empire stretching from the Indus Valley and Southern Russia to the East to Tunisia in the West and presided over an age of brilliant cultural achievements This study first published in 1981 examines the Abbasid Caliphs from their coming to power in 750 AD to the death of the Caliph al Ma mun in 833 AD when the period of Turkish domination began It looks at the political history of the period and also considers the social and economic factors showing how they developed and influenced political life The work is designed as a unique introduction to the period and will prove invaluable to all students involved with Islamic Byzantine and Mediterranean history and culture The Lands of the Eastern Caliphate Guy Le Strange,1905 Natural Disasters, Cultural Responses Christof Mauch,Christian Pfister,2009-03-16 Catastrophes it seems are becoming more frequent in the twenty first century According to UN statistics every year approximately two hundred million people are directly affected by natural disasters_seven times the number of people who are affected by war Discussions about global warming and fatal disasters such as Katrina and the Tsunami of 2004 have heightened our awareness of natural disasters and of their impact on both local and global communities Hollywood has also produced numerous disaster movies in recent years some of which have become blockbusters This volume demonstrates that natural catastrophes_earthquakes hurricanes floods etc _have exercised a vast impact on humans throughout history and in almost every part of the world It argues that human attitudes toward catastrophes have changed over time Surprisingly this has not necessarily led to a reduction of exposure or risk The organization of the book resembles a journey around the globe_from Europe to North Africa the Middle East and Asia and from the Pacific through South America and Mexico to the United States While natural disasters appear everywhere on the globe different cultures societies and nations have adopted specific styles for coping with disaster Indeed how humans deal with catastrophes depends largely on social and cultural patterns values religious belief systems political institutions and economic structures The roles that catastrophes play in society and the meanings they are given vary from one region to the next they differ_and this is one of the principal arguments of this book_from one cultural political and geographic space to the next The essays collected here help us to understand not only how people in different times throughout history have learned to cope with disaster but also how humans in different parts of the world have developed specific cultural social and technological strategies for doing so     The Lands of the Eastern Caliphate G. Le Strange, 2011-06-16 Meticulously
