Front and Back Stage of Tourism Performance Frances Riemer, 2020-01-22 Front and Back Stage of Tourism Performance situates our travel imaginaries those dream destinations on our travel bucket lists as co constructed by the tourist industry state development policies and community negotiations and as framed by modernity's new global cultural economy. As more people travel for pleasure than ever before, host communities and intermediaries are presented with tourism opportunities that all too often become flashpoints for local contestation and mechanisms for displacement. The ethnographically grounded chapters describe tourist encounters shaped by geopolitics complicated by war and troubled by and enacted within the economic inequities of neocolonialism. The points of contact afford a unique vantage from which to view cultural identity, entrepreneurial strategizing and natural resource management as global politics and relations of difference. They also illustrate the power of social networks, cultural display and artistic performance as collective presentation management apparatus and structural critique. Drawing on a range of international case studies, this book will appeal to those interested in tourism anthropology, global studies, environmental issues, microeconomics and identity studies.
