into a history of cartography particularly within the twentieth century spatial turn The original work that makes up this interdisciplinary collection presents a varied look at cartographic strategies employed in writing art and film from the pre Contact Americas to the Renaissance to late postmodernism the effects of exile in its many manifestations on cartographic textual systems ways of seeing and forms of reading the challenges of traversing and mapping unstable landscapes and restrictive social and political networks and the felicities and difficulties of both giving into the map and attempting to escape the map that provides for exile in the first place Cartographies of Exile will be of interest to students and scholars working in literary and cultural studies gender sexuality and race studies anthropology art history and architecture film performance visual studies and the fine arts
