International Studies Notes ,1994      The Australian Year Book of International Law ,2003      Joy and International Relations Elina Penttinen,2013-09-02 This book aims to develop new methodology for the study of international relations IR based on joy informed by current thinking about posthumanism feminist theory and positive psychology It examines how the mechanistic deterministic worldview derived from the Newtonian model has influenced the epistemology and methodology of IR i e the idea that the world is constituted of independent fragments and seeks ways to develop a new methodology for IR by drawing on the potential of a non fragmented worldview The author argues that it is this modern Western view of human beings or societies as isolated and separate from the world that prevents IR from finding new solutions to the questions of war and conflict Drawing upon case studies testimonies and examples from film this book instead proposes joy as an alternative methodology for studying IR exploring the possibility of self healing in physical and emotional trauma in extreme violent conditions The author also discusses how posthumanism contributes to positive psychology in understanding happiness and empowerment and demonstrates how these findings can further widen the study of IR This book will be of much interest to students of gender studies war and conflict studies IR theory and critical security studies      Crosscurrents Mark Charlton,2004-11-25 Turn your classroom into a forum for debate and discussion with the Fourth Edition of Crosscurrents Experts from around the world debate important issues related to the study of international relations and foreign policy from both a Canadian and an international perspective Author Mark Charlton frames each issue with a well written introductory essay and post script to further enhance the learning experience With its lively and effective yes no debate format Crosscurrents continues to provide students with a stimulating collection of essays that encourages the development of critical thought and analytical skills involving major issues of the day      Sustainable Development: Social policy ,2005 Papers presented at the Sixth Sustainable Development Conference held at Islamabad during 11 13 December 2003      Challenging Patriarchy Shefali Roy,Matilda Pereira,2017 Papers presented at International Seminar on Challenging Patriarchy a Humanist Perspective held from 26th to 28th October 2016 at Patna India organized jointly by Department of Political Science and History Patna Women s College Patna University      Indian Ocean and US-Soviet Detente C. Raja Mohan,1991      New York University Journal of International Law & Politics New York University. International Law Society,1993      Gender, Race and International Relations Chris Cunneen,Julie Stubbs,1997 This book examines the over representation of Filipino women as victims of homicide in Australia The authors argue that the vulnerability of Filipino women to violence in this country can only be understood through the intersection of representations of gender and race within the context of international relations The work examines homicide and domestic violence immigration and the marketing of marriage and sex and the Internet as a specific site through which idealised constructions of Asian women are commodified to be accessed by Western men a sensitive analysis of the complex web of race gender and class I congratulate the authors on their work and heartily endorse this book Zita Antonios Race Discrimination Commissioner Arizona Anthropologist, 1993 Gendering the "Black Pacific" Yasuhiro Okada, 2008 Women's Lives Gwyn Kirk, Margo Okazawa-Rey, 2004 This work provides an introduction to women's studies by examining the diversity of US women's lives across categories of race ethnicity class sexuality disability and age and within a global context Each chapter contains Questions to frame your reading Political Science & Feminisms Kathleen A.
