Baedekers Italy:

Italy Karl Baedeker (Firm),1886      Women and the Travel Guidebook, 1870-c.1910 Jasmine Proteau,2025-01-31

Although the printing giants of John Murray and Karl Baedeker dominated the nineteenth century travel guidebook market women were important producers and consumers of guides This book argues that in the late nineteenth century women were key cultural producers of travel guidebooks an important form of non fiction mass media during an upsurge and shift in European travel and tourism While a limited number of studies have identified a small number of female authored guidebooks this is the first to take a broad view of women s place within the guidebook market situating female authored texts within a large and competitive book market to understand the role of gender in guidebook publication Given Italy s historic religious cultural and artistic significance to the Anglophone world guides to Italy were perhaps the most numerous among all the guidebooks targeted at travellers from the United Kingdom and North America in the nineteenth century and therefore form a key focus of this study      Baedeker's Italy ,1990      Mark Twain's Literary Resources Alan Gribben,2024-10-15 Dr Alan Gribben a foremost Twain scholar made waves in 1980 with the publication of Mark Twain s Library a study that exposed for the first time the breadth of Twain s reading and influences Prior to Gribben s work much of Twain s reading history was assumed lost but through dogged searching Gribben was able to source much of Twain s library Mark Twain s Literary Resources is a much expanded examination of Twain s library and readings Volume I included Gribben s reflections on the work involved in cataloging Twain s reading and analysis of Twain s influences and opinions This volume long awaited is an in depth and comprehensive accounting of Twain s literary history Each work read or owned by Twain is listed along with information pertaining to editions locations and more Gribben also includes scholarly annotations that explain the significance of many works making this volume of Mark Twain s Literary Resources one of the most important additions to our understanding of America s greatest author      Italy Karl Baedeker (Firm),1895      Between Worlds Yasna Bozhkova,2022-07-07 This book provides a new critical reappraisal of the work of modernist writer and artist Mina Loy Primarily known for her daring and difficult poems Loy was also the author of a dazzling variety of other literary and visual artworks in different genres and media My reading demonstrates the richness and complexity of her work beyond the more often explored path from Futurism to Dada to Surrealism emphasizing the importance of her perpetual travel between disparate aesthetics Engaging in a close analysis of her poetry essays manifestoes and novel Insel I unearth a multiplicity of hidden literary and pictorial intertexts in her works Tracing the origins of Loy s often puzzling imagery I examine the complex strategies of collage condensation distortion and displacement through which she conflates multiple allusions in enigmatic constellations I challenge T S Eliot s claim that Loy lacks an uvre claiming that there is an aesthetic project or at least a paradoxical unity in her famously fragmented work I show how her writings critically engage with the turbulence of avant garde innovation of her time pinpointing the essential ephemerality of the avant gardes and their tendency to become dogmatic ideologies Through a perpetual shift of the aesthetic paradigm Loy s work creates dialogic exchanges between different experimental aesthetic programs Thus the book positions Loy not only as an important artist but also as a major theorist of modernist and avant garde aesthetics

Architecture as a Frail, Literary Object Mark Campbell,2026-04-06 This book considers the motives ambitions and malaprops of writing architectural history during the early 1900s a moment that coincided with the emergence of modernity In reference to a series of eccentric Anglo American cultural figures it considers the relationships between architecture human perception disease and frailty to provide original ideas regarding the writing of architectural history and the literary construction of architecture Architecture is not typically associated with frailty Indeed one of the founding principles of architecture is that it should aspire to be stable resilient and indefatigable In addition architecture is also not typically thought of in terms of its literariness Tracing this contradictoriness this book considers architecture as a frail literary object by examining the eccentric architectural criticism of Geoffrey Scott author of The Architecture of Humanism 1914 together with the opportunistic connoisseurship of Bernard Berenson the leading authority on the attribution of Italian Renaissance painting Through a reading of their works it interprets architecture as both frail when viewed through the diffracted lens of nervous illness and a form of writing in which architecture assumes concrete form through literary description This book will be of interest to academics students and researchers in architecture and architectural history
