Bagpipe Muzak:

Bagpipe Muzak Liz Lochhead, 1991 The Highland Bagpipe Dr Joshua Dickson, 2013-02-28 The Highland bagpipe widely considered Scotland's national instrument is one of the most recognized icons of traditional music in the world. It is also among the least understood. But Scottish bagpipe music and tradition, particularly but not exclusively the Highland bagpipe, has enjoyed an unprecedented surge in public visibility and scholarly attention since the 1990s. A greater interest in the emic led to a diverse picture of the meaning and musical iconicism of the bagpipe in communities in Scotland and throughout the Scottish diaspora. This interest has led to the consideration of both the globalization of Highland piping and piping as rooted in local culture. It has given rise to a reappraisal of sources which have hitherto formed the backbone of long-standing historical and performative assumptions. And revivalist research which reassesses Highland piping's cultural position relative to other Scottish piping traditions such as that of the Lowlands and Borders today effectively challenges the notion of the Highland bagpipe as Scotland's national instrument. The Highland Bagpipe provides an unprecedented insight into the current state of Scottish piping studies. The contributors from Scotland, England, Canada, and the United States discuss the bagpipe in oral and written history, anthropology, ethnography, musicology, material culture, and modal aesthetics. The book will appeal to ethnomusicologists, anthropologists, as well as those interested in international bagpipe studies and traditions.

Edinburgh Companion to Liz Lochhead Anne Varty, 2013-03-14 Explores the significance of Liz Lochhead's work for the twenty-first century. The first contemporary critical investigation since Liz Lochhead's appointment as Scotland's second Scots Makar, this Companion examines her poetry, theatre, visual and performing arts, and broadcast media. It also discusses her theatre for children and young people, her translations for the stage, as well as translations of her texts into foreign languages and cultures. Several poets offer commentaries on the influence of Liz Lochhead on their own practice, while academic critics from America, Europe, England, and Scotland offer new critical readings inspired by feminism, post-colonialism, and cultural history. The volume addresses all of Lochhead's major outputs from a new appraisal of early work such as Dreaming Frankenstein and Blood and Ice to evaluations of her more recent works and collections such as The Colour of Black and White and Perfect Days.

Women, Poetry and the Voice of a Nation Anne Varty, 2021-10-15 The concurrent tenures of Gillian Clarke as National Poet of Wales, Carol Ann Duffy as UK Poet Laureate, Liz Lochhead as Scots Makar, and Paula Meehan as Ireland Professor of Poetry defied historic rifts between women, poetry, and nation. This book explores the extraordinary changes these women fought to achieve as each made her way from marginalised poetess of the 1970s to laureate at the heart of cultural establishment in the 21st century. It looks at how they revitalised these public offices and explores their interventions in contemporary geopolitics and national self-understanding. It considers how they shaped their roles by engaging with poetic icons of the past, by linking poetry and education, and by joining poetry with politics.

From Word to Canvas V.G. Julie Rajan,2009-03-26 From Word to Canvas Appropriations of Myth in Women s Aesthetic Production is an innovative collection of essays on female aesthetic production and myth examining the ways in which women artists and writers utilize myth to negotiate their perceptions of feminine identity and feminine representation in an increasingly complex and culturally hybrid world The featured essays and artistic contributions address a variety of contemporary female productions including literature performance and visual art in a markedly global scope Representing a wide range of cultures languages geographic locales and social contexts from Jewish Hindu and Kenyan German through Irish Italian American to Vietnamese folktales this diversified selection underscores the agency of the feminine gaze across a historical and geopolitical span a gaze through which myths from various cultures and different cultural amalgams speak to us with force and with significance The potency of this gaze is linked to the potential of myth simultaneously to encompass and compress history and to offer the result as a backdrop against which the move from word to canvas or from a mythic tale to its aesthetic appropriation is performed in female aesthetic production
