Bahrain A New Era:

Bahrain 1975/76 - 2020 Anthony Axon, Susan Hewitt, 2023-09-20 Bahrain has roots deep in the past going back some 5000 years It was a vital link between civilisations such as the Phoenicians the Levant and Mesopotamia The modern era of Bahrain began in 1783 following the island's conquest by Ahmed al Fateh It has been ruled by the al Khalifa family since 1961 Bahrain was declared independent from the United Kingdom in August 1971 and issued its first constitution in 1973

Bahrain's Surviving Dynasty Mohamed Matar, 2023-06-30 The Al Khalifa of Bahrain is a long standing dynasty that has established dispute resolution measures to overcome intra tribal ambitions for power and wealth replacing extra constitutional rulership succession with primogeniture Since their control over Bahrain began in 1783 until the British withdrawal from the Gulf in 1971 the Al Khalifa introduced ten senior ruling shaykhs seven of whom experienced turbulent successions and faced in house rivalries and power seeking disputes This book provides valuable insights into how the Al Khalifa tribe managed to shape and maintain their patrimonial rule for over 240 years ultimately emerging as one of the most prevailing and enduring royal families in the region today It delves into their strategies and tactics for overcoming local contexts external challenges and intra tribal rivalries The book is an essential read for anyone interested in the history and politics of Bahrain and the Gulf region

Bahrain Philip Moore, 2001 Bahrain's economic and political achievements since independence have been remarkable The country has successfully moved away from an over dependence on the oil industry and vulnerability to oil prices to an open well diversified economy a sound legal infrastructure that adheres to international standards and a well trained bilingual workforce Bahrain has transformed itself into one of the world's leading aluminium producers a key transportation hub and the region's leading financial centre

The Report: Bahrain 2015 Oxford Business Group, 2015-02-27 The kingdom rose to prominence as the region's financial hub in the 1970s and today despite increasing competition from its neighbours it is bolstering this position as it leads the way in the Islamic banking segment hosting the highest concentration of Islamic financial institutions globally The takaful segment represents one of the fastest growing segments in Bahrain's insurance sector itself boasting the highest insurance penetration rate in the GCC. Meanwhile a rising population is driving housing and transport infrastructure in the country with private contractors benefitting as a result. Looking forward these expansions to rail and air links should boost the kingdom's tourism offering with tourism's contribution to GDP expected to grow significantly over the next 10 years while elsewhere the projects will drive Bahrain's role as a regional logistics centre with the kingdom aiming to position itself as a key entry point to the GCC moving forward.

Political Repression in Bahrain Marc Owen Jones, 2020-07-16 From torture to fake news this book lays out how the Bahrain regime has used political repression and violence to fight social movements. The Business Year: Bahrain 2026, Across 200 pages of exclusive interviews analysis and features The Business Year Bahrain 2026 highlights the nation's strategic progress under Vision 2030 and the Economic Recovery Plan. It includes insights from key government figures and business leaders driving growth in sectors ranging from finance industry and logistics to telecoms real estate and tourism.

Bahrain - The Exception in the Gulf Anna Fuchs, 2013-03-12 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject Politics Region Near East Near Orient grade 2.0 University of Tübingen Institut für Politikwissenschaft course Current Issues in the Mediterranean Revolutions in the Arab World language English abstract Bahrain is one of the countries of the so-called Arab Spring but it differs from other revolutionary states. First of all it is the only one of the six Gulf monarchies in which the existing ruling system was seriously threatened by the demonstrations. Also the protests as such have a special significance not only because with up to a hundred thousand people taking it to the streets they were remarkably bigger than the protests in other monarchies but also because compared to the population these were probably the biggest demonstrations in the Arab world. Nevertheless the protests have up until now failed. The Kingdom of Bahrain in 2002 Omar Al-Hassan, 2003

Bahrain, 1998 The Dynamics of Iranian Borders Mansoureh Ebrahimi, Masoumeh Rad Goudarzi, Kamaruzaman Yusoff, 2018-06-15 This book is on Iran's geopolitical importance representing a continuum of international competition for political gains and economic benefit due to the country's unique geographical location that has always been a cause of contention. Iran's massive borders and evolving political weakness along with influences from the kings of Qajar that maintained and strengthened Great Britain's hegemony in the region were major factors affecting ongoing regional conflicts. Additional roles played by other world powers such as France, Russia, and the United States are also noted. Conflicts, unrest, and regional wars were all consequences arising from power struggles that led to treaties and international agreements between Iran, Britain, and Russia that caused the eventual loss of traditional Iranian territories. Hence extrinsic impositions on Iran are the subject of this study as authors examine the turbulent climate that altered Iranian borders during the Qajar Dynasty. Bahrain, a Geographical Approach to Its History Hasan Askari Kazmi, 1986 The Report: Bahrain 2008,
