LL Leslie

Baileys Cafe Arc:

Bailey's Café Gloria Naylor, 1992 Roman AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 The Wounded Angel Paul Lakeland, 2017 In this unique book readers are taken on a journey to explore the role of the imagination in the face of mystery whether it be the mystery of God whose full reality lies beyond our earthly horizons or the deepest mysteries of life hinted at in the work of fiction By attending to a series of novels Paul Lakeland proposes serious fiction as an antidote to the failure of the religious imagination today and shows how literature might lead the secular mind at least to the threshold of mystery Publisher description The Women of Brewster Place Gloria Naylor, 2021-05-11 The National Book Award winning novel and contemporary classic that launched the brilliant career of Gloria Naylor now with a foreword by Tayari Jones A shrewd and lyrical portrayal of many of the realities of black life Naylor bravely risks sentimentality and melodrama to write her compassion and outrage large and she pulls it off triumphantly The New York Times Book Review Brims with inventiveness and relevance NPR's Fresh Air In her heralded first novel Gloria Naylor weaves together the stories of seven women living in Brewster Place a bleak inner city sanctuary creating a powerful moving portrait of the strengths struggles and hopes of black women in America Vulnerable and resilient openhanded and openhearted these women forge their lives in a place that in turn threatens and protects a common prison and a shared home Naylor renders both loving and painful human experiences with simple eloquence and uncommon intuition in this touching and unforgettable read South of Tradition Trudier Harris, 2010-04-15 With characteristic originality and insight Trudier Harris Lopez offers a new and challenging approach to the work of African American writers in these twelve previously unpublished essays Collectively the essays show the vibrancy of African American literary creation across several decades of the twentieth century But Harris Lopez's readings of the various texts deliberately diverge from traditional ways of viewing traditional topics South of Tradition focuses not only on well known writers such as Zora Neale Hurston Ralph Ellison James Baldwin and Richard Wright but also on up and coming writers such as Randall Kenan and less known writers such as Brent Wade and Henry Dumas Harris Lopez addresses themes of sexual and racial identity reconceptualizations of and transcendence of Christianity analyses of African American folk and cultural traditions and issues of racial justice Many of her subjects argue that geography shapes identity whether that geography is the European territory many blacks escaped to from the oppressive South or the South itself where generations of African Americans have had to come to grips with their relationship to the land and its history For Harris Lopez south of tradition refers both to geography and to readings of texts that are not in keeping with expected responses to the works She explains her point of departure for the essays as a slant an angle or a jolt below the line of what would be considered the norm for usual responses to African American literature The scope of Harris Lopez's work is tremendous From her coverage of noncanonical writers to her analysis of humor in the best selling The Color Purple she provides essential material that should inform all future readings of African American literature The Tribe of Pyn David Cowart, 2015-12-02 In The Tribe of Pyn Cowart offers illuminating readings of several important novelists now at the height of their powers whose work has received fairly limited scholarly attention thus far Jonathan Franzen Alice Walker David Foster Wallace Gloria Naylor Richard Powers and a raft of others are examined with lapidary care Wrestling with the challenges inherent to distinguishing generational character especially in the postmodern context which is often marked by its disavowal of ideas of origin etc Cowart teases out interactions and entanglements that help illuminate the work of the younger writers at the center of this study and also that of the trailblazers on its ragged frontiers By comparing literary figures born in the 1940s 1950s 1960s and later with those born in the 1920s and 1930s Cowart seeks to map the changing terrain of contemporary letters Hardly epigones he argues the younger writers add fresh inflections to the grammar of literary postmodernism Younger writers can continue to make it new Cowart establishes without needing to dismantle the aesthetic they have inherited from a parental generation
