Bakhtin And The Human Sciences No Last Words:

Bakhtin and the Human Sciences Michael Bell, Michael E Gardiner, 1998-08-28 Bakhtin and the Human Sciences demonstrates the abundance of ideas Bakhtin's thought offers to the human sciences and reconsiders him as a social thinker not just a literary theorist. The contributors hail from many disciplines and their essays' implications extend into other fields in the human sciences. The volume emphasizes Bakhtin's work on dialogue, carnival ethics and everyday life as well as the relationship between Bakhtin's ideas and those of other important social theorists. In a lively introduction Gardiner and Bell discuss Bakhtin's significance as a major intellectual figure and situate his ideas within current trends and developments in social theory.

Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner, 2002-01-04 Recent years have witnessed a burgeoning interest in the study of everyday life within the social sciences and humanities. In Critiques of Everyday Life Michael Gardiner proposes that there exists a counter tradition within everyday life theorising. This counter tradition has sought not merely to describe lived experience but to transform it by elevating our understanding of the everyday to the status of a critical knowledge. In his analysis Gardiner engages with the work of a number of significant theorists and approaches that have been marginalized by mainstream academe including the French tradition of everyday life theorising from the surrealists to Henri Lefebvre and from the Situationist International to Michel de Certeau, Agnes Heller and the relationship between the everyday, rationality and ethics. Carnival, prosaics and intersubjectivity in the work of Mikhail Bakhtin, Dorothy E Smith's feminist perspective on everyday life. Critiques of Everyday Life demonstrates the importance of an alternative multidisciplinary everyday life paradigm and offers a myriad of new possibilities for critical social and cultural theorising and empirical research.

The Politics of Becoming European Maria Mälksoo, 2009-10-26 This book weaves together perspectives drawn from critical international relations, anthropology and social theory in order to understand the Polish and Baltic post Cold War politics of becoming European. Approaching the study of Europe's eastern enlargement through a post colonial critique, author Maria Mälksoo makes a convincing case for a rethinking of European identity. Drawing on the theorist Edward Said, she contends that studies of the European Union are marked by a prevailing Orientalism, rarely asking who has traditionally been able to define European identity and whether this identity should be presented as an historical process rather than a static category. The central argument of this book is that the historical experience of being framed as simultaneously in Europe and yet not quite in Europe informs the current self understandings and security imaginaries of Poland and the Baltic States. Exploring this existential condition of liminal Europeaness among foreign and security policy making elites, the book considers its effects on key security policy issues including relations with Western Europe, Russia and the United States. Supported by solid empirical analyses, this book provides an innovative and interdisciplinary approach to the post Cold War predicament of Poland and the Baltic States. It will be of interest to students and scholars of International Relations, European Studies, Social and Political Theory and Anthropology.

Bakhtin & His Intellectual Ambience Bogusław Żyłko,2002 Bakhtin and Religion Susan M. Felch,Paul J. Contino,2001 The dimension of religion in the life and work of Bakhtin has been fiercely contested and willfully ignored by critics Unique in its in depth focus on this subject Bakhtin and Religion brings together leading British American and Russian scholars to investigate the role of religious thought in shaping and framing Bakhtin s writings These essays provide an overview of Bakhtin s attitude toward religion in general and Russian Orthodoxy in particular addressing topics ranging from how Bakhtin s religious ideas informed his linguistic and aesthetic theories to the idea of love in his secular and religious thought and to the religious component of Bakhtin s theory of laughter
