Balkans 2010 Edward C. Meyer, William L. Nash, 2002

Balkans 2010 Edward C. Meyer, William L. Nash, Council on Foreign Relations, 2002 During the 1990s nowhere was the virus of militant ethnic nationalism more deadly than in the Balkans America and its allies ultimately played an indispensable role stopping atrocities and creating conditions for sustainable peace now after a decade of extensive involvement the international community is looking to wind down its commitment in the region The Center for Preventive Action a conflict prevention initiative of the Council on Foreign Relations formed this Independent Task Force to develop tangible and practical recommendations to put the Balkan states irreversibly on the path toward integration with Europe and to allow the international community to reduce its presence in an orderly fashion by 2010 The Task Force's key recommendations include first the European Union taking the lead on the Balkans but with American leadership and partnership to ensure that U S interests particularly in the areas of military reform and the combating of organized politico criminal syndicates that undermine regional and even global security are safeguarded second shifting the priorities of international and local actors toward the standards of the European Union and NATO accession plans and using conditionality carrots and sticks by the international community to achieve its priorities third increasing investment and trade in the Balkans through banking sector reform privatization of state or publicly owned corporations private sector development and legislative and judicial action on property rights The Task Force included senior experts on the Balkans and U S foreign policy from a cross section of think tanks government the military international organizations academia and the business community Book jacket The Balkans United States. Winning the Peace Robert C. Orr, 2004-07-20 Events in Iraq Afghanistan and the Balkans have proved that failed and defeated states threaten the national security interests of the United States and the stability of entire regions But success in addressing these threats clearly depends on more than military might the post conflict period is equally crucial Case studies in this book examine the U S approach in Kosovo East Timor Sierra Leone Afghanistan and Iraq The book offers policy guidance on how to handle current reconstruction challenges and on building capacity to do a better job when America is inevitably called on to restore failed nations in the future

Endgame in the Balkans Elizabeth Pond, 2006-09-26 Can Europe tame the Balkans That's the question veteran journalist Elizabeth Pond addresses in this timely and absorbing book Starting with the wars of the Yugoslav succession Endgame in the Balkans guides readers through the region's tumultuous recent history and explores both how the lure of European Union EU membership has affected the Balkans and how Balkan developments have shaped the EU Drawing on hundreds of interviews as well as decades of experience as a foreign correspondent Pond moves deftly across the region from Bulgaria to Romania Kosovo Croatia Bosnia Macedonia Albania and Serbia and Montenegro She examines the many hurdles standing between these countries and EU membership including poverty corruption and rabid chauvinism as well as the hopes and problems that have led Balkan leaders to look to the West In the process she paints a vivid picture of the challenges facing the region as it seeks to vault from the nineteenth to the twenty first century Already in its brief history the European Union has forged a historic reconciliation between France and Germany and helped consolidate democracy in Portugal Spain and Greece But in southeastern Europe it faces one of its most difficult tasks yet En dgame in the Balkans reveals the full extent of this challenge as well as the grounds for hope Rich in detail and penetrating analysis this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in the future both of the region and of Europe as a whole Current Politics and Economics of Russia, Eastern and Central Europe ,2007 The Journal of East European Law ,2001 Slovenia after the year 2004 Milan Bufon,2005 Regional Cooperation, Peace Enforcement, and the Role of the Treaties in the Balkans Stefano Bianchini,2007 Turning Points in Post-war Bosnia Christophe Solioz,2007 The tenth anniversary of the Dayton Paris Peace Agreement in December 2005 provides an important milestone encouraging a review of its achievements and shortcomings and examining future challenges to Bosnia and Herzegovina and the international community This book outlines some basic trends focusing on three essential issues facing this country democratization and transitions processes country ownership and potential turning points Addressing these issues in a non dogmatic way in the spirit of constructive criticism the book concludes that both the EU and Bosnia must seize their opportunities and responsibilities As the Dayton decade draws to an end the next chapter in Bosnia s history must be a European one and it must start now Highlighting the complexity of the ownership process as well as the necessity to foster local responsibility the book focuses on state building and European integration that will evolve by implicit necessity and not by fiat or decree The propose The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2005 The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2006 Next Steps in Croatia's Transition Process Srđan Dvornik,Christophe Solioz,2007 In this study leading policy oriented scholars and practitioners from the cities of Zagreb and Split in Croatia draw on years of experience to critically assess the transition process in post independence Croatia With wide ranging contributions the book analyzes how the interpretation of national sovereignty has evolved in this post communist transition It also investigates the prospects for civil social engagement in a future without civil society and discusses the pervasive effects of external assistance as well as the considerable challenges Croatia s economy faces Above all the book notes the need for changes in the mindset of entrepreneurs and society in general Arguing for a more nuanced understanding of Croatia and considering the ownership of initiatives as a key to their success the book offers insights into the problems emerging at this juncture Building Market Institutions in South Eastern Europe Harry G. Broadman,2004 Annotation A study of impediments to investment and private sector development in Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia Moldova Romania and Serbia and Montenegro this title yields fundamental new insights for improving the region s business environment economic development and prospects for growth It is a collaborative effort between the World Bank and the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development that offers important practical ideas for all policymakers and observers concerned with the future of South Eastern Europe It makes concrete recommendations for reforms that would ease the constraints on domestic and foreign investment an essential step in sustaining growth and reducing poverty in the region Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Rusko Matulić,1998 In this second volume Rusko Matulic continues to formulate a comprehensive bibliography of primarily published sources relating to the history languages literature politics government religion and social sciences of former Yugoslavia including bibliographical materials on expatriates Transatlantic Tug-of-war Ingo Peters,2006 Within the rhetoric on transatlantic relations the consensus prevails that in order to cope with global challenges constructive engagement and effective cooperation between the United States and its European partners is required However regarding actual policy making particularly subsequent to 9 11 and the war in Iraq conflicting agendas and policies on both sides of the Atlantic are easily discernible The articles in this book deal with various societal political and security issues constituting frame and context of the transatlantic relationship in order to explain the contradiction between declarations and deeds and to evaluate the chances for narrowing the policy gap Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),2003
