Upon a daring ride Though never the lad come back again With the good that will betide I will end a letter to Beauregard The Colonel slowly said The bearer dies at the pickets line But the letter shall be read When the pickets find it for the Chief In the brave hand of the dead The Countersign Ready I ride to the Chief for the sign Said little Dan O Shea Though never I come from the picket s line But a faded suit of grey Yet over my death will the road be safe And the regiment march away In a mother s name I bless thee lad The Colonel drew him near But first in the name of God said Dan And then is my mother s dear Her own good lips that taught me well With the Cross of Christ no fear Quickly he rode by valley and hill On to the outpost line Till the picket s arise by wall and mound And the levelled muskets shine We are delighted to publish this classic
