Walker, Beverly Baer, 1990-04 The Index provides a broad coverage and access to book reviews in the general social sciences humanities sciences and fine arts as well as general interest magazines and includes journals from Great Britain Canada Switzerland Israel and Australia In addition it indexes several journals that while published in the US concentrate on reviewing foreign published or foreign language books These include Hispania French Review German Quarterly and World Literature Today     Children's Catalog , 1971 The 1st ed includes an index to v 28 36 of St Nicholas     A Complete Concordance Or Verbal Index to Works, Phrases and Passages in the Dramatic Works of Shakespeare John Bartlett, 1894     The Dominant , 1923     Etude Theodore Presser, 1927 Includes music     Normal Instructor and Teachers World , 1924     Musical Observer , 1922     Dostoevsky and English Modernism 1900-1930 Peter Kaye, 1999-05-06 When Constance Garnett's translations 1910 20 made Dostoevsky's novels accessible in England for the first time they introduced a disruptive and liberating literary force and English novelists had to confront a new model and rival The writers who are the focus of this study Lawrence Woolf Bennett Conrad Forster Galsworthy and James either admired or feared Dostoevsky as a monster who might dissolve all literary and cultural distinctions Though their responses differed greatly these writers were unanimous in their inability to recognize Dostoevsky as a literary artist They viewed him instead as a psychologist a mystic a prophet and in the cases of Lawrence and Conrad a hated rival who compelled creative response This study constructs a map of English modernist novelists misreadings of Dostoevsky and in so doing it illuminates their aesthetic and cultural values and the nature of the modern English novel     Dance Me a Song Beth Genné, 2018-05-30 Dancer choreographer directors Fred Astaire George Balanchine and Gene Kelly and their colleagues helped to develop a distinctively modern American film dance style and recurring dance genres for the songs and stories of the American musical Freely crossing stylistic and class boundaries their dances were rooted in the diverse dance and music cultures of European immigrants and African American migrants who mingled in jazz age America The new technology of sound cinema let them choreograph and fuse camera movement light and color with dance and music Preserved intact for the largest audiences in dance history their works continue to influence dance and film around the world This book centers them and their colleagues within the history of dance where their work has been marginalized as well as film tracing their development from Broadway to Hollywood 1924 58 and contextualizing them within the American history and culture of their era This modern style like the nation in which it developed was pluralist and populist It drew from aspects of the old world and new high and low theatrical and social dance forms creating new sites for dance from the living room to the street A definitive ingredient was the freer more informal movement and behavior of their jazz age generation which fit with song lyrics that poeticized slangy American English The Gershwins Rodgers and Hart and others wrote not only songs but extended dance driven scores tailored to their choreography giving a new prominence to the choreographer and dancer actor This book discuss how these choreographers collaborated with directors like Vincente Minnelli and Stanley Donen and cinematographers like Gregg Toland musicians dancers designers and technicians to synergize music and moving image in new ways Eventually concepts and visual musical devices derived from dance making would give entire films the rhythmic flow and feeling of dance Dancing Americans came to be seen around the world as archetypal embodiments of the free spirited optimism and energy of America itself Billboard Music Week ,1929 The Dance ,1930 Punch ,1883 Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1883 Folk Dances of Different Nations Louis Harvy Chalif, 1926 Theatre Magazine W.
