Baltic Odybey War And Survival:

A Baltic Odyssey Martha Von Rosen, Jürgen Von Rosen, 1995 Presents two narratives chronicling the end of WWII a prisoner of war diary and an account of fleeing from the Russians by a German husband and wife separated from each other Also includes a brief account of the family s life after the war in Canada and an editorial afterword plus bandw photos Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Tools for Environmental Management Dixon Thompson, 2005-01 With a growing commitment to environmental awareness and protection on the part of corporations and governments there has never been a greater need for an integrated toolkit and management framework for achieving long term sustainability targets Author Dixon Thompson responds to this need by presenting a set of 22 environmental management tools that can be applied to a local national and international situation Each tool is described using specific examples in addition to highlighting the legal requirements and standards and how best to apply each tool Included as well is an exhaustive list of newsletters journals and useful references for staying informed and up to date with a host of environmental issues Tools for Environmental Management is essential for industry professionals charged with environmental responsibilities academics and students or anyone concerned with environmental stewardship Forging a New Heimat Pascal Maeder, 2011 In the aftermath of World War II twelve million German expellees lost their homes in Central and Eastern Europe The overwhelming majority came to occupied Germany However expellees found themselves also stranded in Western Europe Africa and the Americas which is often overlooked by researchers and the public Going beyond the standard narratives of flight vigilante evictions and transfers this book follows expellees in West Germany and Canada and shows for example how German prisoners of war exiles or immigrants experienced the expulsions in distant Canada As the author illustrates making extensive use of oral histories their experiences were an integral part of the multi faceted expellee story even though they were physically absent from their homes Juxtaposing the record of two countries with disparate public discourses on immigration the author also reveals how in both countries expellees eventually adopted national identities which based on their ethno regional heritage reflected their experience of extreme nationalism war and expulsion as well as the initially difficult settlement into a new political social and cultural environment Hard Labour: The Forgotten Voices of Latvian Migrant 'Volunteer' Workers Linda McDowell, 2013-09-05 Although the Second World War ended sixty years ago there are still untold stories waiting to be heard stories not only of diplomats and soldiers but also of refugees camp inmates and ordinary people living in occupied territories stories of women s and children s lives as well as those of men In Hard Labour the forgotten voices of a group of young women who left Latvia in 1944 are captured telling the story of their flight from the advancing Soviet Army their difficult journeys across central Europe their lives as displaced people in Allied camps in Germany and finally their refuge in Britain Hard work is at the centre of these stories as the women became volunteer workers first for the Nazi war effort and then as labourers in the British post war reconstruction plan In what has been described as a venomous postscript to the War the fit and able amongst the vast homeless and often stateless population that fetched up in camps run by the Allies in war devastated Germany were recruited by western states as labourers Great Britain was the first nation to recruit displaced persons offering jobs in hospitals and private homes as domestic workers and in the textile industry to young single women and later men from Latvia Lithuania and Estonia and other once independent states Many of these women spent the rest of their lives in Britain longing to return to their homelands but independence came too late for many of them At the centre of Hard Labour are the lives of twenty five now elderly Latvia women who came to Britain between 1946 and 1949 Their memories are placed in the context of recent work in feminist history illuminating debates about displacement and loss as well as the transformation of women s lives in post war Britain Augustine and Politics as Longing in the World John von Heyking,2001 Saint Augustine s political thought has usually been interpreted by modern readers as suggesting that politics is based on sin In Augustine and Politics as Longing in the World John von Heyking shows that Augustine actually considered political life a substantive good that fulfills a human longing for a kind of wholeness Rather than showing Augustine as supporting the Christian church s domination of politics von Heyking argues that he held a subtler view of the relationship between religion and politics one that preserves the independence of political life And while many see his politics as based on a natural law ethic or on one in which authority is conferred by direct revelation von Heyking shows how Augustine held to an understanding of political ethics that emphasizes practical wisdom and judgment in a mode that resembles Aristotle rather than Machiavelli Canadian Books in Print. Canadian Book Review Annual ,1996 Quill & Quire ,1996 Refractions of Germany in Canadian Literature and Culture Heinz Antor,2003 This volume presents a series of in depth studies of particular authors or specific aspects of Germany in Canadian literature and culture present and past Individual investigations resonate with each other adding up to a larger picture of Canada s views on Germany and things German in all their richness complexity and historical persistence
