Translator of Balzac Julia Titus,2022-01-25 The focus of this study in comparative criticism is close analysis of Dostoevsky s first literary publication his 1844 translation of the first edition of Balzac s Eug nie Grandet 1834 and the stylistic choices that he made as a young writer while working on Balzac s novel Through the prism of close reading the author analyzes Dostoevsky s literary debut in the context of his future mature aesthetic style and poetics Comparing the original and the translation side by side this book focuses on the omissions additions and substitutions that Dostoevsky brought into the text It demonstrates how young Dostoevsky s free translation of Eug nie Grandet predicts the creation of his own literary characters themes and other aspects of his literary output that are now recognized as Dostoevsky s signature style It investigates the changes that Dostoevsky made while working on Balzac s text and analyzes the complex transplantation of Balzac s imagery motifs and character portraiture from Eug nie Grandet into Dostoevsky s own writing later on

Balzac and Music Jean-Pierre Barricelli,2017-07-20 First published in 1990 this book was the first comprehensive study of Balzac s relationship to music blending past scholarship with new perspectives to formulate an inclusive account It begins by examining the contacts and experiences that shaped the musical side of Balzac s life These left valuable and lasting impressions which often found their way into his writings where he recorded a myriad of critical and musicological opinions assessed primarily in relation to Gambara and Massimilla Doni These discussions prepare the way for an analysis of Balzac two major musical persuasions religious music and Beethoven This book will be of interest to students of literature and music

Evolution, Sacrifice, and Narrative Carol Colatrella,2016-07-22 First published in 1990 Balzac Zola and Faulkner all drew upon the principles of evolutionary theory to represent man s place in nature and his struggle for survival in their major series La Com die humaine Rougon Macquart and the Yoknapatawpha fiction This book focuses on the first novels in each author s series La P re Goriot La Fortune des Rougon and Flags in the Dust and considers how each novel relates to its series and derives a definition of the naturalistic roman fleuve To describe this development the issues of how a scientific idea becomes refracted in a literary genre and how the naturalistic novel developed out of the realistic novel are considered way in which he combined a theatrical tradition of anti provincial satire with a more open celebration of French provincial life in the post Revolutionary period Ranging widely over texts from both within and outside La Com die humaine the author analyses Balzac s determination to invest the Rousseauist nostalgia for country over city with an updated rationale A champion of central authority and absolutist government Balzac is seen here in an unfamiliar role as the guardian of regional culture a novelist who sought to record the diversity of France s small towns and villages before they were lost to industrialization and the railway age Equally the study reveals new aspects of his political engagement with questions impacting upon the provinces during the Restoration and July Monarchy from broad issues such as agriculture and landownership to more isolated grievances such as the implications of the 1827 Forest Code The whole offers a fresh insight into Balzac s thought and literary aesthetic and an assessment of his hitherto neglected role in supporting the emergence of the regionalist novel or roman du terroir in the second half of the nineteenth century *Oxford public library.
