Taylor Hemphill, 2019-04-12 NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR My idea was to make a coffee table book that contained 100 portraits 100 poems and 100 sketches Each book contains half of that so 50 each The portraits are all candid I set up a camera between the subject and myself then proceeded to have a conversation I added the poems next then decided to have a friend of mine draw the sketches and lastly I added the paintings to the pages It all kept growing and growing into what you're about to see None of it means anything individually The portraits are separate from the poems and the poems are separate from the sketches even down to the titles of the poems I wanted to be as creative as possible with every aspect but overall it makes a whole piece together The point of the book is for people to have something to open and flip through when they need inspiration have a creative block or just wanna escape This is no longer mine it's yours Take from it what you will
