Ban Chiang Heritage:

Designs on Pots Penny Esterik, 2025-10-01 1 Explores heritage from a prehistoric perspective that combines cultural and historical material 2 Combines contexts of looting and faking with excavated material from a single site 3 Provides an example of symmetry analysis on prehistoric painted pottery Ban Chiang, 1993 Designs on Pots Penny van Esterik, 2023 The prehistoric site of Ban Chiang in northeast Thailand challenges the narrative of Thai origins while at the same time appealing to the public's vision of Thailand as an early centre of civilization Ban Chiang demonstrates the complexity of constructing national heritage in modern Thailand where the Thai national narrative begins and ends with Buddhism and the monarchy Designs on Pots Ban Chiang and the Politics of Heritage in Thailand contributes to the literature on cultural preservation repatriation fake antiquities as souvenirs and the ethics of collecting and demonstrates how heritage tourism intersects with the antiquities market in Asia Ban Chiang itself is important for rethinking the model of indigenous development in Southeast Asian prehistory and provides informed speculation about the borders between prehistory proto history and history in the region challenging current and past models of Indianization that shape the Thai state's heritage narrative Guide to Ban Chiang National Museum, 2009 Ban Chiang Heritage, 1991 Monastery, Monument, Museum Maurizio Peleggi, 2017-10-31 Ranging across the longue durée of Thailand's history Monastery Monument Museum is an eminently readable and original contribution to the study of the kingdom's art and culture Eschewing issues of dating style and iconography historian Maurizio Peleggi addresses distinct types of artifacts and artworks as both the products and vehicles of cultural memory From the temples of Chiangmai to the Emerald Buddha from the National Museum of Bangkok to the prehistoric culture of Northeast Thailand and from the civic monuments of the 1930s to the political artworks of the late twentieth century even well known artworks and monuments reveal new meanings when approached from this perspective Part I Sacred Geographies focuses on the premodern era when religious credence informed the cultural alteration of landscape and devotional sites and artifacts including visual representation of the Buddhist cosmology were created Part II Antiquities Museums and National History covers the 1830s through the 1970s when antiquarianism and eventually archaeology emerged and developed in the kingdom partly the result of a shift in the elites worldview and partly a response to colonial and neocolonial projects of knowledge Part III Discordant Mnemoscapes deals with civic monuments and artworks that anchor memory of twentieth century political events and provide stages for both their commemoration and counter commemoration by evoking the country's embattled political present Monastery Monument Museum shows us how cultural memory represents a kind of palimpsest the result of multiple inscriptions reworkings and manipulations over time The book will be a rewarding read for historians art historians anthropologists and Buddhism scholars working on Thailand and Southeast Asia generally as well as for academic and general readers with an interest in memory and material culture
