The Cambridge Companion to Joseph Ratzinger Daniel Cardó,Uwe Michael Lang,2023-12-21 A study of key themes in Ratzinger's thought highlighting his theological synthesis in response to religious and intellectual challenges

Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson,2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century

Divine Worship and Human Healing Bruce T. Morrill,2013-03-15 Would many believers consider a wake or funeral an act of worship What does it mean to say that in anointing the sick or administering Viaticum to the dying humans are healed Such questions plumb the biblical and traditional depths of the paschal mystery Just as Jesus' ministry at the social religious margins revealed the center of his faith in God's reign so also the church's ministry to sickness and death reveals much about the baptismal and Eucharistic worship so central to its entire life In Divine Worship and Human Healing Bruce Morrill turns to the rites serving the sick dying deceased and grieving to show why sacramental liturgy is so fundamental to the life of faith Readers will appreciate both his compelling narratives from actual pastoral experience and his engagement with biblical theological historical and social scientific resources Morrill invites readers to discover how the liturgical ministry of healing discloses God's merciful love amid communities of faith

My Call to Priesthood Ronald Eberley,2006-01-26 A personal story of one married Roman Catholic male's attempt to become a priest This is the story of Ron Eberley's so far futile effort to become a married priest It is also a clear account of the chequered history and tortuous theology of mandatory celibacy

Before Vatican II marriage was often considered or at least popularly expressed as a union of bodies that is to say marriage was an exclusive contract by which a man and a woman mutually handed over their bodies for the purpose of acts which led to the procreation of children Matrimonial jurisprudence was primarily focused on this marital contract With the advent of Vatican II and its emphasis on the personalist notion of marriage a new age dawned whereby canonists especially auditors of the Roman Rota were henceforth to view marriage as a union of persons Person is more than a body rather a person is an individual consisting of wants needs desires impulses hopes and dreams whose life experience has been shaped by the milieu cultural familial religious from which he or she comes Union is not only simply understood as a contract but also is now once again recognized as a covenant a concept which at least in the Latin Church was prevalent until the 12th century One of the canons of the 1983 CIC although almost identical in wording to its predecessor in the 1917 CIC but which now must be understood and interpreted in light of the teachings of Vatican II is canon 1096 which pertains to the effect of ignorance on matrimonial consent Given the current appreciation of marriage founded in the teachings of Vatican II especially in Gaudium et spes reiterated by Popes Paul VI and John Paul II and described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church complicated by today's western society's stress on individualism and permeated by a divorce mentality what is the impact of this canon on matrimonial consent How can its meaning once understood as being wider than merely the sexual act itself be better utilized by those in tribunal ministry This is the major thrust of the present work The research of the history and development of the concept of ignorance in canonical writings how its understanding broadened especially after Vatican II and our conclusions on how to apply its richness to marriage nullity led us to expand the use of this canon how it can aid in the development of pre marital preparation programs which would not only possibly help prevent couples from being ignorant of the essence of marriage but also help them to appreciate this richness more deeply in their own lives so that marriage truly can become as we read in canon 1055 a partnership of the whole of life which is ordered by its nature to the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring It is our sincere hope that this study with its extensive footnotes and up to date bibliography will not only be of benefit to all who read it but also will serve as a spring board for further discussion and use of this canon as a ground for nullity and other pastoral uses
