Cognitive Connection Thought And Language In Man And Machine:

The Cognitive Connection Howard Levine, Howard Rheingold, 1987 Discusses the differences between natural language and programming languages looks at mathematical logic and describes the future of computer programming

Musical Languages Joseph Peter Swain, 1997 The illustrations used in the book range from the most elemental speech sounds to the poetry of Emerson from a single saxophone note to the grandest passages of Beethoven they include discussions of medieval polyphony and the music of Josquin Palestrina Monteverdi Bach Mozart Wagner Debussy Schoenberg and American jazz all within their historical contexts Such scope shows how deep the analogy between music and language really is

Aaron's Code Pamela McCorduck, 1991 Aaron's Code tells the story of the first profound connection between art and computer technology Here is the work of Harold Cohen the renowned abstract painter who at the height of a celebrated career in the late 1960s abandoned the international scene of museums and galleries and sequestered himself with the most powerful computers he could get his hands on What emerged from his long years of solitary struggle is an elaborate computer program that makes drawings autonomously without human intervention an electronic apprentice and alter ego called Aaron

No More Teams Michael Schrage, 1995-04-01

For organizations that care about innovation individual creativity isn't enough anymore people need to be in creative collaborative relationships But without the knowledge and tools for building these relationships innovation expert Michael Schrage argues one will not be successful in the offices of today and even less so in the virtual offices of tomorrow No More Teams gives readers the tools and techniques to go beyond the lazy clichés of teamwork to the practical benefits of collaboration When Schrage studied the world's greatest collaborations including Wozniak and Jobs Picasso and Braque Watson and Crick he found that instead of relying on charisma they all created shared spaces where they could play with their ideas By effectively using technological tools available in most workplaces anything from a felt tip pen and a napkin to specialized computer software you can literally map your discussion as it is happening making it possible to keep all the good ideas cope with every objection handle conflicts as they arise and ultimately master the unknown

Magill's Survey of Science Frank Northen Magill, 1993
