Beck, 2000-09-15 Voices for the Watershed is a unique look at the singular and ecologically inter connected region of the Great Lakes St Lawrence watershed including the headwater and upland regions With contributions from experts from the United States Quebec and Ontario this book offers an accessible introduction to the issues affecting the quality of our most essential and precious of natural resources clean fresh water from headwater regions downstream to the Great lakes the St Lawrence river and ultimately the watershed's outflow to the sea With thoughtful words and evocative photography Voices for the Watershed promotes understanding and examines ecological problems describing positive environmental actions and projects as well as ongoing concerns over the effects of pollution on wildlife and human health The underlying themes throughout are that the drainage basins and ecosystems are under siege from reckless land use decisions soil erosion acid rain and massive habitat destruction but that the situation is not hopeless The authors feel strongly that education about the environmental threats in the classroom and public forums is essential to effecting positive change and that conservation actions by citizen groups and individuals can be a driving force in effecting substantial reforms regarding environmental legislation and practices Voices for the Watershed is an eye opening look at not only the problems but possible solutions to help protect and preserve this resilient natural resource on which so many depend Contributors include Gregor Beck Anne Bell Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society J Douglas Blakey Upper Canada College Serge Bourdon Chateauguay Watershed Management Agency Robert Brander retired U S Forest Service and

Colin Angus, Ian Mulgrew, 2002-04-09 The true story of three enthusiastic but inexperienced adventurers who attempt to become the first team to raft the entire length of the Amazon River all 4 007 miles and barely live to tell about it To a trio of twenty something adrenaline junkies it sounded like an irresistible challenge tackle the Amazon with nothing more than a rubber raft between them and fate But when Colin Angus Ben Kozel and Scott Borthwick embarked on their fantastic voyage in September 1999 just climbing to the river's source nearly killed them Beginning with the dehydration that nearly did the adventurers in as they hiked the Andes to the river's source Amazon Extreme is a breathtaking account of the daily challenges dangers and triumphs experienced over the course of this five month expedition With no money to speak of and inaccurate fifty year old maps to guide them this intrepid trio manages to persevere through violent rapids guerilla gunfire mosquito infested drinking water and numerous bouts of sickness But in spite of several near death experiences including one particularly terrifying moment when their raft is toppled in the raging white water Angus's crew finds a reverence for the compelling beauty that makes this region so renowned Amidst the hardship are moments of pure pleasure from graceful dolphins and lush forests to the intriguing gracious people who've made their homes along the riverbank An inspiring tale of courage and exploration this is the story of three guys who truly went off the deep end and one who came back to write a riveting recollection of it Canoeing a Continent Max Finkelstein, 2002 A highly personal account of the travels of Max travelogue of a canoe trip across Canada this is an account that crosses more than two centuries It is an exploration into the heart and mind of Alexander Mackenzie the explorer and Max Finkelstein the Voyageur in Training Using Mackenzie's journals and his own journal writings the author creates a view of the land from two vantage points The author retraced the
