Following a historical overview, six essays organized topically examine the key themes that characterized the Cold War: its origins in the distrust among the World War II allies, the force of American anti-Communism, Washington's enhanced postwar global role, the competing objectives of the U.S. and U.S.S.R. in pursuit of global influence and the reasons why the Soviet Union did not survive the Cold War. A timeline of events, glossary of terms, biographical profiles of major players and the text of 17 key documents necessary for student research on the Cold War provide valuable research tools. Following a timeline of events and narrative historical overview, six topical essays discuss the origins of the Cold War, McCarthyism and internal security in the United States, the Cold War in Asia, the Cold War in Latin America, the Middle East and Africa, the end of detente and revived hopes for Soviet-American relations ushered in by Gorbachev and its denouement and the legacies and implications of the Cold War. Documents include a variety of speeches, excerpts from the memoirs of leaders on both sides of the Cold War as well as the text of key government documents. Each document is preceded by an explanatory introduction. An annotated bibliography of works suitable for students and a selection of photographs enhance the value of this work.
