Cambó Jesús Pabón, 1952 Colección Cambó Colección Cambó, 1971 Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love, marriage and family. They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals, marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects: maiolica, glassware, jewels, textiles, paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts. This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context. The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s. Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain. BOOK
