Preaching Christ in a Postmodern Culture K. A. Beville, 2010-04-16 Starting with some observations relating to shifts in ecclesiology and identifying them as a move beyond contextualization to syncretism this work goes on to assess the feasibility of preaching in a postmodern culture which rejects both the idea of absolute truth and authority used as power It traces the historical and philosophical development of postmodernism The Enlightenment project is deemed to have failed and Christianity is perceived as an oppressive metanarrative In a world that is becoming increasingly sceptical and where preaching practitioners are becoming disillusioned this book offers some guidelines about preaching to postmoderns In a relational age rationality is impotent but the author distinguishes between authoritative and authoritarian preaching allowing hope for the survival of the homiletic task Humility is presented as preferable to certitude and persuasion is redefined The author suggests using an inductive mode of communication as a means of engaging postmodern listeners He signposts a way forward in the labyrinthine complexity of the new paradigm and demonstrates that the homiletic task is still feasible Thus this book will be of interest to teachers and students of theology as well as pastors desiring to develop a new apologetic
