Crash A Channel Four:

Air Crash Investigations Allistair Fitzgerald, 2011 On 23 June 1985 Air India Flight 182 a Boeing 747 237B was on its way from Montreal Canada to London when it was blown up while in Irish airspace and crashed into the Atlantic Ocean 329 people perished It was the largest mass murder in modern Canadian history The explosion and downing of the carrier was related to the Narita Airport Bombing Investigation and prosecution took 25 years The suspects in the bombing were members of the Sikh separatist Babbar Khalsa Inderjit Singh Reyat the only person convicted was sentenced to 15 years in prison Highway Safety Literature ,1978 Associated Press Coverage of a Major Disaster Thomas Fensch, 2015-07-16 Originally published in 1989 This diary of a news event looks at how the reporting happened as spread by the news wire system of the Associated Press service in America Analysing the flow of information in this detailed way this book presents how a major disaster a fast moving story with considerable spin was fed out to the press via the Dallas bureau in 1988 Introductory chapters outline the workings of a press bureau office during a major story and present interview sections with key reporters on the story about how their role unfolded Sidebar commentary alongside the reproductions of the news wires organised by date and time adds interesting discussion throughout the book while a conclusion evaluates the coverage of the story The Appendices include reproductions of Texas newspapers resulting pages about the crash This is a fascinating case study of the dissemination of news date before the internet compiled at a time when computers were just large enough to retain in memory all stories relating to event X in order for this kind of analysis to be attempted

Freakshow Jon Dovey, 2000 True confessions fake films and docu soaps in the last ten years factual television has been transformed by an explosion of new genres Freakshow offers a serious look at reality TV in an attempt to understand the mass media s fascination with intimacy deviancy and horror BR BR Jon Dovey analyses reality TV in terms of the political economy of the mass media He investigates the relationship between confessional television and our modern understanding of culture and identity Is our fascination with the personal the only meaningful response to the complexity of our own lives Are the politics of the self the only alternative to the defunct grand narratives of yesterday BR BR In concentrating not on the reception of these new television forms but on the choices models and agendas which inform their production Dovey reveals the relationships between social anxieties economic pressures and their specific inflections in media texts In a critical analysis of media industry practice Dovey asks why directors can t stay out of range of their own cameras and what is the role of the television of intimacy within broadcasting Battle Over Britain Francis K. Mason, 1990 The Propaganda Model Today Joan Pedro-Carañana, Daniel Broudy, Jeffery Klaehn, 2018-10-25 While the individual elements of the propaganda system or filters identified by the Propaganda Model PM ownership advertising sources flak and anti communism have previously been the focus of much scholarly attention their systematisation in a model empirical corroboration and historicisation have made the PM a useful tool for media analysis across cultural and geographical boundaries Despite the wealth of scholarly research Herman and Chomsky's work has set into motion over the past decades the PM has been subjected to marginalisation poorly informed critiques and misrepresentations Interestingly while the PM enables researchers to form discerning predictions as regards corporate media performance Herman and Chomsky had further predicted that the PM itself would meet with such marginalisation and contempt In current theoretical and empirical studies of mass media performance uses of the PM continue nonetheless to yield important insights into the workings of political and economic power in society due in large measure to the model's considerable explanatory power HRIS Abstracts, 1978

When One Door Closes Peter Sissons, 2012-02-09 A Liverpool boy from the same cohort as John Lennon Paul McCartney and George Harrison Peter Sissons was destined for great things Then he was caught on the wrong side of rebel lines during the Nigerian Civil War and shot through both legs his blossoming career as a war reporter came abruptly to an end But another door was about to open and Sissons went on to guide a generation through every momentous event of the last forty five years Surprisingly funny dramatic and often poignant When One Door Closes is the bestselling story of Britain's most distinguished newsreader and reveals what he really thinks about the state of the British media global affairs Climategate and the workings of the BBC Announcement of Highway Safety Literature, 1978 The Official Index to The Times

Select Committee on Science and Technology, Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Science and Technology Committee, Andrew Miller, 2014-04-02 The Government is failing to clearly and effectively communicate climate science to the public There is little evidence of co ordination amongst Government government agencies and public bodies on communicating climate science despite various policies at national and regional level to mitigate and adapt to climate change The mandate to act on climate can only be maintained if the electorate are convinced that the Government is acting on the basis of strong scientific evidence Ministers therefore need to do more to demonstrate that is the case and consistently reflect the Government approach in all their communications especially with the media The report also criticises the BBC for its reporting on the issue It points out that BBC News teams continue to make mistakes in their coverage of climate science by giving opinions and scientific fact the same weight The BBC is called to develop clear editorial guidelines for all commentators and presenters on the facts of climate that should be used to challenge statements from either side of the climate policy debate that stray too far from the scientific facts It is important that climate science is presented separately from any subsequent policy response Government should work with the learned societies and national academies to develop a source of information on climate science that is discrete from policy delivery comprehensible to the general public and responsive to both current developments and uncertainties in the science
