Getting to Excellent Judith A. Langer, 2004 Getting to Excellent

is for everyone educators parents civic leaders who want students to think sharply like learning and have the high literacy skills that will open the path to success in school work and life Using data from her groundbreaking study of diverse middle and high schools Judith Langer shows us what makes the difference between highly effective schools and typical business as usual schools This very accessible volume Provides research based guidance from schools in California Florida New York and Texas four states with diverse students and different testing demands Features many examples of schools in action identifying particular features that are present in effective schools but don t exist in others Examines the extent to which teachers and administrators are affected by the larger environment leading to professional growth or malaise Includes models for providing rich and exciting learning environments that undergird success for all students Includes self inspection checklists to help administrators teachers and others place their own school on the continuum from typical to excellent and identify areas that need improvement

Building School 2.0 Chris Lehmann,Zac Chase,2015-07-31 Ninety five propositions for creating more relevant more caring schools There is a growing desire to reexamine education and learning Educators use the phrase school 2 0 to think about what schools will look like in the future Moving beyond a basic examination of using technology for classroom instruction Building School 2 0 How to Create the Schools We Need is a larger discussion of how education learning and our physical school spaces can and should change because of the changing nature of our lives brought on by these technologies Well known for their work in creating Science Leadership Academy SLA a technology rich collaborative learner centric school in Philadelphia founding principal Chris Lehmann and former SLA teacher Zac Chase are uniquely qualified to write about changing how we educate The best strategies they contend enable networked learning that allows research creativity communication and collaboration to help prepare students to be functional citizens within a modern society Their model includes discussions of the following key concepts Technology must be ubiquitous necessary and invisible Classrooms must be learner centric and use backwards design principles Good technology can be better than new technology Teachers must serve as mentors and bring real world experiences to students Each section of Building School 2 0 presents a thesis designed to help educators and administrators to examine specific practices in their schools and to then take their conclusions from theory to practice Collectively the theses represent a new vision of school built off of the best of what has come before us but with an eye toward a future we cannot fully imagine

Creating Great Schools Phillip C. Schlechty,2005-02-21 Helping educational leaders sustain continuous innovation and improvement in schools this text presents a framework for understanding the norms behaviours and structures that make school systems so intractable to change

Handbook for Developing Schools with Good Discipline William W. Wayson,1982 Using the results of a national survey of over 500 schools identified as having good discipline this handbook presents guidelines for improving school discipline An introductory chapter offers an overview of the survey project In the second chapter the authors list 13 characteristics identified in the survey that are common to schools with good discipline along with examples of survey responses The 13 characteristics relate to the role of the principal conventional school activities school environment orientation to students causes of discipline problems school ties to parent and community and staff enthusiasm Drawing further on the survey results the third chapter summarizes 100 activities for improving school discipline organized around eight goals improving problem solving reducing status and authority differences increasing students sense of belonging promoting self discipline reaching more students strengthening school home interactions and improving school organization and facilities Chapter 4 provides a 110 item rating scale the discipline context inventory to help schools identify ways to better their discipline practices In the final chapter the authors formulate eight principles for school improvement and outline a step by step planning and action guide for implementing disciplinary change Author RW The Nation ,1885 Journal of Education ,1917 Building World ,1902 Inventing Better Schools Phillip C. Schlechty,2003-04-16 Schlechty shows both educators and parents how to envision reform and design quality educational systems He explains how the visioning process must be rooted in real shared beliefs how mission statements must unpack visions into concrete goals that are connected to action and how the results of reform can be usefully assessed Drawing on the author s vast experience in the day to day work of implementing school reform Inventing Better Schools offers new approaches for setting standards and ensuring accountability and includes samples of actual mission statements and strategic plans of successful school districts Educational Bulletin North Carolina. Creating Better Schools: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Creating Better Schools : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Creating Better Schools : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
