A Coen-Kidnapping - One Topic, Two Realizations, 2005-11-24 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 0 Dresden Technical University course HS Outstanding Film Directors language English abstract In this paper for the seminar Outstanding Film Directors I want to analyze two movies by Joel and Ethan Coen namely Fargo 1996 and The Big Lebowski its successor from the year 1998 After introducing the movies along with their characters storylines symbolism and other relevant issues I am planning on pointing out to what extent they are similar and typically Coen esque and how they differ Special attention will be paid to the kidnapping theme used in both movies to the display of violence and to the stylistic devices especially to those that define the various genres detective story western etc utilized by the directors The way the Coens play with the expectations of their viewers and critics is also supposed to be a topic of this work However before I begin my paper I would like to introduce the directors to the reader Joel and Ethan Coen often referred to as the Coen brothers or the two headed director were born in St Louis Park Minnesota in 1954 and 1957 respectively While Joel is always credited as the director Ethan only appears as the producer In reality though both of them write direct and produce their movies and also do the cutting which might be one reason for their aforementioned nickname Moreover this fact underlines the humongous influence they have on the resulting product as all the crucial production steps are carried into execution by them It also explains the perfectionism to which they attach great importance As the Coens have a clear vision of their movie to be and thus work hard at the preproduction they will never accept improvisation Rumor has it that every yah in Fargo was actually scripted Kilzer p 167 It is common knowledge in the business that ad lib performances are not something these two directors appreciate Little is known about their private life because the Coen brothers set value on keeping it out of the public eye But since they do not include self depictions or references to their lives in their films even though many critics suppose so this fact will not prevent the subsequent discussion of the two named movies Mirabella, 1997 Sight and Sound, 2001

The Coen Brothers (Text-only Edition) Adam Nayman, 2018-09-11 Fans of Fargo The Big Lebowski No Country for Old Men and other modern classics will enjoy this definitive history of the Coen brothers oeuvre Indiewire From such cult hits as Raising Arizona 1987 and The Big Lebowski 1998 to major critical darlings Fargo 1996 No Country for Old Men 2007 and Inside Llewyn Davis 2013 Ethan and

Joel Coen have cultivated a bleakly comical instantly recognizable voice in modern American cinema In The Coen Brothers This Book Really Ties the Films Together film critic Adam Nayman carefully sifts through their complex cinematic universe in an effort to plot as he puts it some Grand Unified Theory of Coen ness With a combination of biography close analysis and enlightening interviews with key Coen collaborators this book honors the films singular mix of darkness and levity and is the definitive exploration of the Coen brothers oeuvre

Cinematic Storytelling Jennifer Van Sijll,2005 Dialog is one of the best known and obvious elements in a film But the language of cinema is more subtle and sophisticated than dialog alone From Metropolis to Kill Bill this remarkable reference guide reveals 100 of the most potent storytelling tools of the film medium It demonstrates how master screenwriters and directors depend on cinematic devices to pump up action create characters and energize a motion picture s plot Cinematic Storytelling compresses 100 years of film history outlining the important connection between film technique and storytelling It shows how the purposeful use of film techniques like lighting editing and sound can evoke audience emotions like fear hatred or anger without a word of dialog It demonstrates how character values and themes are expressed cumulatively over time and nonverbally In this the reader is given both the critical tools to better understand modern moviemaking and the creative tools to more fully exploit the dramatic potential of the medium

BOOK JACKET Urban Legends Nick Harding,2005 To many urban tales are nothing more than stories told with the express aim of provoking a frisson of fear in the listener But is there something working at a deeper level In this book Nick Harding sets out to describe a host of urban legends suggesting that we should not dismiss them purely as nonsense

The Coen Brothers Joel Coen,Ethan Coen,2006 Collected interviews with the quirky and distinctive writer director team of such films as Raising Arizona Intolerable Cruelty and Barton Fink

The Film Journal ,1996 Bomb ,1996 From the Arthouse to the Grindhouse John Cline,Robert G. Weiner,2010-07-17 While there are numerous books on art and exploitation cinema very few attempt to examine both Covering the first 100 years of cinematic transgressions From the Arthouse to the Grindhouse is a collection of numerous essays representing key contributions to overlooked forgotten or under analyzed parts of film history From cult favorites like Arch Hall Jr to revered but under documented marquee names like Lon Chaney filmmakers both major and minor are covered here Starting with a section that pairs exploitation pioneers like Dwain Esper alongside cutting edge auteurs like Erich Von Stroheim the volume documents the bleeding edge of the high low cultural divide Other essays examine the sexual melodramas of Weimer German cinema explore the concept of Borat as a model for the new standardized cult film and discuss the films of directors Tod Browning Pier Pasolini and Peter Watkins This volume also contains a section devoted to the idea of reality inside and outside the documentary sphere emphasizing audiences desire to believe that this is really happening whether they re horrified or titillated Addressing many aspects of transgression in cinema these essays suggest that the distance between the venues and the audiences may not be quite as wide as viewers might imagine
