Coffin's Interest Tables John E. Coffin,1913      The United States Catalog ,1921      The Publishers Weekly ,1916
The United States Catalog ,1921      The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1978      The Coffin of Heqata Harco Willems,1996
The coffin published in this book represents a type that had some popularity in southern Upper Egypt in the early Middle Kingdom but which despite its extraordinary decoration had not attracted attention so far The most striking feature of the decoration is that the object friezes the pictorial rendering of ritual implements usually found on coffin interiors of the period also include complete ritual scenes some of which are attested only here Apart from this the decoration includes an extensive selection of the religious texts know as the Coffin Texts The author first studies the archaeological context and dating of the coffin and attempts a reconstruction of the construction procedures from his technical description of the monument The detailed account of the decoration in the rest of the book interprets the ritual iconography and offers fresh translations and interpretations of the Coffin Texts A methodological innovation is that he regards the scenes and texts not as individual decoration elements but as components of an integral composition The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased s regeneration The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion      The United States Catalog Supplement, July 1921-June 1924 Eleanor E. various analytical techniques detailing past research and introducing new data and best practices for future conservation efforts The new analysis includes more accurate radiocarbon dating fully comprehensive data from updated CT scans examples of Egyptian blue and yellow pigments on the coffins uncovered by non invasive x ray fluorescence unprecedented analysis of the coffin wood updated translations and stylistic analysis of the text and imagery on the coffins gas chromatography of the paints and resins linen analysis and much more The Egyptian Mummies and Coffins of the Denver Museum of Nature Science provides replicable findings and consistent terminology for institutions performing holistic studies on extant museum collections of a range of material types It will add substantially to what we know about the effective conservation of Egyptian mummies and coffins Contributors Christopher H Baisan Hans Barnard Bonnie Clark Pearce Paul Creasman Farrah Cundiff Jessica M Fletcher Kari L Hayes Kathryn Howley Stephen Humphries Keith Miller Vanessa Muros Robyn Price David Rubinstein Judith Southward Jason Weinman The Cumulative Book Index ,1939
