Servant Leadership Styles and Strategic Decision Making Mughal, Yasir Hayat, Kamal, Shahid, 2018-10-22 Today it is essential for leaders to interact closely within an organization's community to effectively promote its organizational development. Understanding trust at the individual level allows for business improvement. Servant Leadership Styles and Strategic Decision Making provides the relevant theoretical framework and the latest empirical research on servant leadership styles and cognitive styles from an Eastern perspective. Featuring coverage on a variety of topics including autocratic leadership, leadership effectiveness, and organizational support, this book explores decision-making theories as moderators and mediators for leadership effectiveness. This book is designed for managers, professionals, researchers, educators, and administrators seeking current research on participative leadership, decision-making, and philosophy.

Handbook of Human Factors and Ergonomics in Consumer Product Design, 2 Volume Set Waldemar Karwowski, Marcelo Soares, Neville A. Stanton, 2020-05-18 A comprehensive resource, this handbook covers consumer product research, case study, and application. It discusses the unique perspective a human factors approach lends to product design and how this perspective can be critical to success in the marketplace. Divided into two volumes, the handbook includes introductory and summary chapters on case study, design methods, and process error and hazards evaluation methods, focus groups, and more. It discusses white goods, entertainment systems, personnel, audio devices, mobile phones, gardening products, computer systems, and leisure goods.

Aptitude, Learning, and Instruction Richard E. Snow, Marshall J. Farr, 2021-05-30 Originally published in 1987, this book reports the proceedings of a conference held in 1983 at Stanford, California. The purpose of the conference was to bring together individuals whose research reflected advanced theoretical thinking and empirical evidence on the combined analysis of cognitive, conative, and affective processes, the role of these processes in learning from instruction, and the importance of individual differences therein. The editors believed that this volume made an early and important contribution to the reemphasis and reexamination of the conative and affective aspects of human performance in coordination with cognitive psychology in the study of aptitude, learning, and instruction. It takes its place as Volume 3 of the Aptitude, Learning, and Instruction series.

The Malleability of Intellectual Styles Li-fang Zhang, 2013-09-09 Intellectual styles are an individual's preferred ways of using the cognitive abilities that they possess. This book presents the first comprehensive and systematic review of existing research on style malleability. Analyzing research findings derived from both cross-sectional and longitudinal investigations, Professor Li-fang Zhang demonstrates that intellectual styles can be modified through both socialization and purposeful training.

Human Factors and Ergonomics in Consumer Product Design Waldemar Karwowski, Marcelo M. Soares, Neville A. Stanton, 2011-06-22 Every day we interact with thousands of consumer products. We not only expect them to perform their functions safely, reliably, and efficiently, but also to do it so seamlessly that we don't even think about it. However, with the many factors involved in
