Collected Later Poems, 1988-2000 Ronald Stuart Thomas, 2004 R S Thomas 1913 2000 is one of the major poets of the twentieth century the greatest Welsh poet since Dylan Thomas and one of the finest religious poets in the English language This substantial gathering of his late poems shows us the final flowering of a truly great poet still writing at the height of his powers in his 70s and 80s It begins with his autobiographical sequence The Echoes Return Slow unavailable for many years and also includes Counterpoint Mass for Hard Times No Truce With the Furies and his final collection Residues A Masterwork of Doubting-Belief John G. McEllhenney, 2013-02-13 R S Thomas 1913 2000 was a major poet of the twentieth century He was respected by luminaries of the literary establishment recognized with numerous awards and nominated for the Nobel Prize in 1996 Thomas was also a priest of the Anglican Communion who wrestled ceaselessly with problems of faith and doubt in his poetry John G McEllhenney makes R S Thomas poems ministry and irascible character come brilliantly alive in his new book A Masterwork of Doubting Belief R S Thomas and His Poetry McEllhenney who developed a personal relationship with Thomas during the last decade of the poet s life draws on his conversations and correspondence with Thomas as well as his experiences as a clergyman and lover of poetry and offers readers a unique experience that is part biography part appreciation and part religious meditation A Masterwork of Doubting Belief is an important new contribution to our understanding of R S Thomas and an inspiring source of insights for all who struggle with their faith The New Oxford Book of War Poetry Jon Stallworthy, 2014-06-26 There can be no area of human experience that has generated a wider range of powerful feelings than war Jon Stallworthy s classic and celebrated anthology spans centuries of human experience of war from Homer s Iliad through the First and Second World Wars the Vietnam War and the wars fought since This new edition published to mark the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War includes a new introduction additional poems from David Harsent and Peter Wyton amongst others The new selection provides improved coverage of the two World Wars and the Vietnam War and new coverage of the wars of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Marian Poem-Prayers in the Modern Age Jean Ward, 2025-10-16 This book explores a range of twentieth and twenty first century poem prayers directed to or involving Mary In readings of works by T S Eliot David Jones Geoffrey Hill Elizabeth Jennings Hilary Davies Rowan Williams and others Ward traces the resurgence of interest in Mary from the late nineteenth century to the present day By the early twentieth century the once widespread and fervent cult of the Virgin Mary had for more than three hundred years been largely absent from England s religious life Similarly the figure of Mary had almost vanished from English poetry only to return gradually as Marian devotion began to revive in the nineteenth century The perception of this devotion as somehow un-English dominant since the Reformation presented a challenge to poets engaged with the Marian theme in the modern day Marian Poem Prayers in the Modern Age examines how male and female poets from both Roman Catholic and Anglican backgrounds responded to this situation The book also argues that the figure of Mary is a type of John

Henry Newman's category of real assent commitment that is not merely intellectual but involves the totality of a person's being in relation to God

The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Duncan, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names

Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick, 2008 Examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon s state funeral at which Bob Dole s eulogy depicted a God fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media These reinforce Frick s probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements BOOK JACKET
