Collected Meditations:

All the Gifts of Life Patricia Frevert, 2002 At times we get caught up in the minutiae of life confused about what is important The meditations collected here remind us of the magic taking place all around us Third in the popular series of collected meditations that began with Day of Promise and continued with What We Share Over seventy meditations suitable for public and private use From lightly humorous commentary on daily events to reflections on family life childhood memories holiday celebrations and solitary contemplations with nature these meditations offer readers insight perspective and a rich appreciation of the human experience

Devout Meditations Charles Howe, 1807

The Collected Meditations of Mrs. Maria W. Stewart Maria W. Stewart, 2022-02-15 The Collected Meditations of Mrs Maria W Stewart 2021 compiles the speeches and writings of Maria W Stewart This groundbreaking collection includes some of the best works from across Stewart s career as the first African American public lecturer including Meditations from the Pen of Mrs Maria Stewart her 1832 speech delivered at the Franklin Hall her address delivered before the African American Female Intelligence Society and her lecture delivered at the African Masonic Hall in 1833 Many will suffer for pleading the cause of oppressed Africa and I shall glory in being one of her martyrs for I am firmly persuaded that the God in whom I trust is able to protect me from the rage and malice of mine enemies and from them that will rise up against me and if there is no other way for me to escape He is able to take me to himself In the brief span of five years Stewart became one of Boston s most prominent lecturers on abolition and women s rights passionately condemning the institution of slavery while calling attention to the racism faced by free African Americans living in the north This collection places some of her best known speeches alongside her highly regarded meditations personal reflections on life as a Black woman in nineteenth century America A keen observer of political events and a powerful voice against oppression of all kinds Maria W Stewart remains relatively unknown despite her prominent role in the movements for abolition and women s rights With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of The Collected Meditations of Mrs Maria W Stewart is a classic of African American literature reimagined for modern readers

Short Meditations Collected from Various Authors (1879) Mary Hood, 2009-04 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work

Day of Promise Kathleen Montgomery, 2001 Gathered from the more than 1 700 meditations published since the consolidation of the Unitarians and Universalists in 1961 this collection was created with a specific audience in mind a reader looking for comfort and challenge perhaps not a Unitarian Universalist but someone open to our values and our theology For that reason the selections are not about Unitarian Universalism but of it Each is by a Unitarian Universalist each I think captures something important embedded in our tradition      Listening for Our Song Margaret L. Beard, 2002

Over fifty meditations suitable for public and private use Part of the series of collected meditations that includes Day of Promise What We Share and All the Girls of Life Includes inspiring observations about the natural world solitary reflections and celebrations of family and community life Meditations prompt the quiet reflection we need to counter the busy days of our lives Ranging from solitary reflections to social commentary from wry humor to poignant memory these readings urge us to reconnect with our inner selves      The Sheen Mission Series Fulton J Sheen, Allan Smith, 2025-10-25 Four powerful missions One complete journey with Fulton J Sheen Archbishop Fulton J Sheen's timeless wisdom has inspired millions to deeper prayer and love of Christ Now for the first time his Mission Series is gathered into one collected volume a treasury of over 100 meditations chosen from his most powerful writings and reflections Each meditation invites you to pause ponder and pray offering a rich opportunity for your own mini retreat at home or moments of quiet reflection throughout the year In these pages you will discover The Holy Face and the Little Way with St Therese of Lisieux console Christ through small acts of hidden love Behold Your Mother walk with Mary at the foot of the Cross and learn the power of her maternal intercession The Cross and the Last Words meditate on Calvary with Sheen as your guide through Christ's final words Lord Show Us Thy Face and We Shall Be Saved embrace your mission to reflect Christ's Face to the world This beautifully curated edition focuses on Sheen's most profound spiritual meditations distilled from his original mission volumes with prayers and supplementary materials removed so that readers can focus solely on his most stirring insights Whether read daily weekly or as a personal retreat The Sheen Mission Series Collected Meditations offers a spiritual rhythm for every season a way to gaze upon the Holy Face unite with Mary and stand with Christ at the Cross so that His light may shine through you      Singing in the Night Mary Benard, 2004 Singing in the Night is a collection of more than 50 inspiring prayers poems and prose perfect for nighttime reading worship or personal reflection Each meditation illustrates that faith is not to be taken for granted it must be attended to cared for and practiced The four writers who contribute to Singing in the Night offer hope gratitude and a sense of deep humility at day's end Gordon McKeeman compares religion to a van that needs regular check ups even when it seems to be in good working order Kaaren Anderson imagines Eve banished from the Garden of Eden but thrilled I knew it lay before me Eve exclaims my life my opportunity my humanness Jane Ellen Mauldin offers an end of day meditation that includes a silent sigh of gratitude for yet one more chance to do our job again and go on David Rankin contributes a poem that celebrates prayer and humility I love to pray to peek through a mystic window and look upon the fabric of life and to think how little I know All four contributors are ministers who don't have all the answers They have convictions and questions They uphold faith yet express honest doubt inspiring readers to trust their own questions The meditations in Singing in the Night have been selected from meditation manuals published annually by the Unitarian Universalist Association They reflect the theological diversity of Unitarian Universalism a non-creedal religion that draws inspiration from many faith traditions around the world These meditations encourage readers to explore their own religious path a path traveled by believers everywhere Notes for Meditation Upon the Collects for the Sundays and Holy Days Arthur Crawshaw Alliston Hall,1896 Glad to Be Human Kaaren Anderson,2000-05-01 Part of the UUA Meditation Manual series The Essential Guide to Religious Traditions and Spirituality for Health Care Providers Steven Jeffers,Michael E Nelson,Vern Barnet,Michael C Brannigan,2012-12-17 This extraordinary compendium of religious traditions is invaluable to all healthcare providers The user friendly resource contains specific and detailed information on faith traditions vital for providing optimal spiritual care in a clinical setting A series of inspirational introductory chapters promote the importance of spiritual well being as Collected Meditations H.
