Creating Optimal Futures:

Selling the Future Ryan Moran, 2024-01-15 In Selling the Future Ryan Moran explains how the life insurance industry in Japan exploited its association with mutuality and community to commodify and govern lives Covering the years from the start of the industry in 1881 through the end of World War II Moran describes insurance companies and government officials working together to create a picture of the future as precarious and dangerous Since it was impossible for individual consumers to deal with every contingency on their own insurance industry administrators argued that their usage of statistical data enabled them to chart the predictable future for the aggregate Through insurance companies and the state thus offered consumers a means to a perfectible future in an era filled with repeated crises Life insurance functioned as an important modernist technology within Japan and its colonies to instantiate expectations for responsibility to reconfigure meanings of mutuality and to normalize new social formations such as the nuclear family as essential to life Life insurance thus offers an important vehicle for examining the confluence of modes of mobilizing and organizing bodies the expropriation of financial resources and the action of disciplining workers into a capitalist system Routledge Handbook for Creative Futures Gabrielle Donnelly, Alfonso Montuori, 2022-12-30 As the uncertainty of global and local contexts continues to amplify the Routledge Handbook for Creative Futures responds to the increasing urgency for reimagining futures beyond dystopias and utopias It features essays that explore the challenges of how to think about compelling futures what these better futures might be like and what personal and collective practices are emerging that support the creation of more desirable futures The handbook aims to find a sweet spot somewhere between despair and naive optimism neither shying away from the massive socio environmental planetary challenges currently facing humanity nor offering simplistic feel good solutions Instead it offers ways forward whether entirely new perspectives or Indigenous and Traditional Knowledge perspectives that have been marginalized within modernity and shares potential transformative practices The volume contains contributions from established and emerging scholars practitioners and scholar practitioners with diverse backgrounds and experiences a mix of Indigenous Black Asian and White Caucasian contributors including women men and trans people from around the world in places such as Kenya India US Canada and Switzerland among many others Chapters explore critical concepts alongside personal and collective practices for creating desirable futures at the individual community organizational and societal levels This scholarly and accessible book will be a valuable resource for researchers and students of leadership studies social innovation community and organizational development policy studies futures studies cultural studies sociology and management studies It will also appeal to educators practitioners professionals and policymakers oriented toward activating creative potential for life affirming futures for all The Persona and Journey Map Playbook Andrew Schall, 2024-12-01 Most personas and journey maps crash land shortly after takeoff This step by step playbook provides a revolutionary approach to creating these pivotal artifacts in product design through the concept of altitudes They will guide you in conceptualizing your users through research techniques that directly inform persona characteristics Discover how to create personas that are free from irrelevant attributes and learn to develop high altitude personas with sufficient lift to guide product roadmaps and organizational strategy You ll also master constructing flight paths for journey maps that capture the user s journey at the perfect level of detail uncovering key moments in their experience Then as personas and journeys evolve you will learn to measure the impact of product experience improvements With this book as your co pilot you ll navigate the creation process with the help of templates and real world examples reflecting the latest methods for personas and journey maps The Persona and Journey Map Playbook will provide you with the tools and strategies to create impactful personas and journey maps that will drive user centered design and product success What You ll Learn Integrate personas and journey maps into a cohesive user experience strategy Gain practical details to design for users avoiding common pitfalls of stereotyped and irrelevant personas Utilize user research activities and synthesize insights to inform personas and journey maps Understand the root causes of user experience issues through personas and journey maps to inform product roadmaps create user requirements and document future experiences Who This Book Is For Product leaders user experience designers user researchers or any roles responsible for understanding user needs

Biosocial Education Deborah Youdell, Martin R. Lindley, 2018-10-03 In this groundbreaking text Youdell and Lindley bring together cutting edge research from the fields of biology and social science to explore the complex interactions between the diverse processes which impact on education and learning Transforming the way we think about our students our classrooms teaching and learning Biosocial Education draws on advances in genetics and metabolomics epigenetics biochemistry and neuroscience to illustrate how new understandings of how bodies function can and must inform educational theory policy and everyday pedagogical practices Offering detailed insight into new findings in these areas and providing a compelling account of both the implications and limits of this new found knowledge the text confronts the mechanisms of interaction between multiple biological and social factors and explores how educators might mobilize these biosocial influences to enhance learning and enable each child to attain educational success By seeking out transdisciplinary and multi factor answers to the question of how education works and how children learn this book lays the foundations for a step change in the way we approach learning It is an essential read for researchers teachers and practitioners involved in educational policy and practice at any level

Actionable Science Gloria L. Gallardo Fernández, Fred Saunders, Tatiana Sokolova, 2020-04-08 In response to the call for actionable and collaborative solutions oriented research for sustainability this collection of essays provides insights into the multi layered challenges that underlie this fast emerging field It offers the reader a deeper understanding of the myriad local avenues where knowledge is co produced to meet the grand challenge of our times transformation to sustainability Situated within a wide variety of research settings in the global North and South the contributions here variously probe how actionable science emerges or fails to emerge in this process From diverse perspectives they ruminate on various research practice topics including how to reconcile scientific understanding with normative action how to acknowledge and integrate participant knowledge in research and how to handle potential negative impacts of actionable science In examining these rarely reflected upon questions the book provides valuable empirically based insights into research practice and will be useful for scholars and educators working with transdisciplinary research design and practice Universal Design 2016: Learning from the Past, Designing for the Future Jenny Darzentas, Tanja Walsh, David Swallow, Leonardo Sandoval, Andrew Lewis, Christopher Power, 2016-09-15 Universal Design is the term used to describe the design of products and environments which can be used by all people to the greatest extent possible without the need for adaptation or specialized design It is not a euphemism for designs for people with a disability but really is about designing to include all people regardless of their age ability cultural background or status in life However it remains the case that many designers and developers fail to understand the need for universal design and lack the skills needed to implement it This book presents papers from the 3rd International Conference on Universal Design UD 2016 held in York UK in August 2016 The theme of the conference was learning from the past designing for the future and it aimed to bring together policymakers practitioners and researchers interested in the different strands of universal design to exchange ideas and best practice review some of the developments in universal design from the last 20 years and formulate strategies for taking the concept of universal design forward into the future The book is divided into two sections Section 1 About Universal Design and Section 2 Universal Design In Practice The book will be of interest to all those whose work involves design from the built environment and tangible products to communication services and systems Making Peace with Your Past Harold H. Bloomfield, Phil Goldberg, 2010-05-10 Do You Harbor guilt or grudges from past relationships Feel plagued by thoughts of regret Think Oh no not again when personal problems arise Wonder why life hasn't turned out the way you wanted Feel anxious or depressed about your future Seem to be less happy as time goes by If you answered yes to even one of these questions this book can help you make peace with your past here and now The past lives on in everything we think feel say and do Medical studies show that adults who've had adverse or traumatic past experiences are much more vulnerable to life threatening illnesses such as cancer and heart disease Now world renowned psychiatrist Dr Harold Bloomfield bestselling author of Making Peace with Your Parents and Making Peace with Yourself offers practical scientifically proven techniques that can help you heal the wounds of the past
