Creating Value for All, 2008 The extreme prevalence of poverty in today's world calls us urgently for action. Yet the poor harbour a potential for consumption, production, innovation and entrepreneurial activity that is largely untapped. This report shows how entrepreneurs can serve the poor as clients and customers and can also include the poor as producers, employees and business owners. The report's main message: Business with the poor can create value for all. The publication draws on 50 specially commissioned case studies of businesses that have successfully included the poor despite the constraints and created value for all. The cases afford the wealth of ideas for inclusive business models.

Creating Value with Customers, 2006 The four articles in this e-book suggest that companies need to learn to:

1. Adopt the revolutionary thinking involved in co-creating unique value with customers.
2. Develop unique value propositions based on six new imperatives for nurturing customer relationships.
3. Use new tools to explore the discrepancy between what customers say and what they do, and
4. Monitor market and customer opportunities and continuously update their technology strategy.

Creating and Delivering Your Value Proposition Cindy Barnes, Helen Blake, David Pinder, 2009-10-03 In recent years developing a value proposition has become a prime consideration for businesses. A value proposition is an analysis and quantified review of the business benefits, costs and value that a company can deliver to prospective customers and customer segments. Creating and Delivering your Value Proposition provides guidance for business leaders demonstrating why having a strong value proposition is so important for a company. This practical new title shows readers how to build, deliver and harness value propositions to create profitable growth for a business by utilizing the experience of clients and customers. Featuring global case studies and examples, Creating and Delivering your Value Proposition is an essential guide to understanding and developing a value-focused strategy for all senior practitioners.

Creating Value for Leaders Gautam Mahajan, 2023-06-08 Creating value is the foundation of all business. It's what sets you apart from your competition, secures long-term customers and brings distinct meaning to your brand and your stakeholders. Without creating value for your business, your unique offering will be seen as just another commodity in the eyes of your target market. Creating value is in every business leader's vocabulary and uppermost in their overall strategy. In fact, creating value is the purpose of a company according to the Business Roundtable and the World Economic Forum. That is another key reason why more people want to understand and utilise value creation for their benefit and the good of their stakeholders. Many companies and leaders seek to create value but do not know how to. As a result, they create and destroy value unconsciously. This book shows you how to create value consciously. To create long-term value, organizations need to put in place the mindset, capabilities and relationships that enable them to meet the needs of their customers and stakeholders. This book makes value creation understood and used by executives and leaders more effectively. The book describes value creation in its various nuances: how it arises, how it is used, and the width and scope of value creation from
