Creating Workplaces Where People Can Think:

Re-Thinking the Future of Work Colin C. Williams, 2007-02-28 How will work be organised in the future With its global perspective and critical approach Re Thinking the Future of Work provides not only an overview and examination of the array of competing visions but also a radical rethink about the direction of change Time to Think: The things that stop us and how to deal with them Rachel Johnson, 2023-10-13 Being a leader is a wonderful privilege but can also come with challenges we don't always feel prepared for How often do we tie ourselves in knots wondering about the right way to deal with a difficult situation at work Or wondering why no one ever told us how to manage some of the challenges This book is for people who need practical ways of tackling the tricky issues in leadership to move forward courageously From people pleasing to crucial conversations we look at ten areas that can cause us to be stuck and how we can get ourselves free Dip into this book when you need some support to inspire motivate and equip you in whatever stage of leadership you're at so that you can lead more confidently and freely and be your best more of the time Risky Business Anna Withers, Mark Withers, 2016-09-01 Making decisions can be tough but how do you know it's the right one and how can you be sure that unconscious biases aren't distorting your thinking In Risky Business Anna Withers and Mark Withers draw on decades of research in the fields of psychology behavioral economics and neuroscience to explain why are so called rational brains are frequently fooled by over 100 powerful unconscious biases At the same time they provide a straightforward framework everyone can use where these biases are embodied into eight memorable characters that help us to avoid these pitfalls and make better decisions Would YOU Want to Work for YOU?: How to Build an Executive Leadership Brand that Inspires Loyalty and Drives Employee Performance Brenda Bence, 2013-12-15 If you are an executive who has worked long hours risen to every challenge and built a strong reputation for yourself then why haven't you reached the highest levels of leadership Here's a reality check Your business achievements and functional skills alone aren't enough to help you get where you want to go What's likely missing is a skill that the world's best corporate leaders have developed mastery of the people side of the equation You must become a leader that others want to work for How do you do that Let go of being an expert Become a leader of experts If anyone knows what prevents leaders from reaching their full potential it's author Brenda Bence who has years of experience coaching senior executives at the top levels of major corporations worldwide In Would YOU Want to Work for YOU she reveals the 15 most damaging people leadership behaviors that she regularly sees in the workplace and provides you with dozens of tips tools and techniques that you can apply immediately to correct them Packed with real life case studies from around the globe this book will help you Discover where the world's best business leaders focus their energy Get crystal clear about the experience of working with and for you as a leader Uncover the 1 reason for unwanted employee turnover and what to do about it Motivate even your most challenging and underperforming team members Create a winning Executive Leadership Brand The Trademarked YOU Inspire others to excellence and fast track your own career in the process Brenda Bence reveals how you can affect the way your people perceive think and feel about you so that you can become the boss you really want to be Read this book it s about YOU Ken Blanchard coauthor of The One Minute Manager and TrustWorks Critical Thinking and Professional Judgement for Social Work Lynne Rutter,Keith Brown,2015-09-26 Critical thinking as a process can appear formal and academic far removed from everyday life where decisions have to be taken quickly in less than ideal conditions However now more than ever it is seen as a vital part of social work and indeed any healthcare and leadership practice within the current agenda for integration and in the post Francis inquiry health care context This Fourth Edition now reflects this wider arena but also includes new material in response to the continuing review of social work professional standards It continues to take a pragmatic look at the range of ideas associated with critical thinking focusing on learning and development for practice The chapter on professional judgement has been extended to provide a wider discussion on practical reasoning and judgement in relation to developing expertise while other chapters and reading lists have also been updated and activities revised to enhance learning The authors continue to emphasise the importance of sound moral judgement based on critical thinking and practical reasoning while also acknowledging the tensions for staff and teams facing complex uncertain situations and sometimes oppressive workplace cultures Their hope is that increased and informed attention to your thinking can help nurture wise deliberation and action in such challenging times Report from the Select Committee on Home Work Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Select Committee on Home Work,1907 Scientists Making a Difference Robert J. Sternberg,Susan T. Fiske,Donald J.
