Ernest Renan

Creation Of Israel:

The Creation of Israel Jim Whiting,2020-02-04 The formation of the State of Israel in 1948 is one of the most important events in recent History About 3 000 years ago Israel was a powerful nation But it soon fell from power and in the second century CE most Jews were forced out of their homeland Many went to Europe where they were subject to prejudice and persecution for centuries By far the worst case was the Holocaust in which six million Jews were killed Their suffering accelerated a move toward the development of a Jewish state in what came to be called Palestine However Palestine was the home to hundreds of thousands of Arabs Conflict between the two sides was inevitable Open warfare broke out after the United Nations voted to partition Palestine into a Jewish state and an Arab state Though the Israelis achieved their independence the region has never known true peace

The Creation of Israel Phillip Margulies,2005 Israel s creation in 1948 was the fulfillment of an ancient dream for the persecuted Jewish people the culmination of 75 years of Zionist diplomacy and settlement and a disaster for 700 000 Palestinian refugees This anthology examines the forces that led to the creation of Israel and the unresolved issues that continue to rivet the world s attention to this small strip of land on the Mediterranean Sea

How Deuteronomy Created "Israel" Mark K. George,2026-03-11 In this book Mark K George argues that the goal of Deuteronomy is not merely to provide ancient Judah with another set of laws but to write Israel itself into existence He reads Deuteronomy as a manual for self definition with two key aspects being an Israelite means recognizing oneself as a subject under Yahweh s control and Deuteronomy is the handbook of techniques by which one monitors oneself to become Israel Scholars have acknowledged the influence of certain literary features of ancient Assyrian imperial treaties on Deuteronomy In this book George argues that the key to both Deuteronomy and Assyrian rituals of control is their monitoring mechanism not only speaking to their audiences but also providing them with new ways to understand themselves and behave He suggests that Deuteronomy redefines not only Israel but also Yahweh himself according to an Assyrian imperial model with Israel as the subject God as a distant imperial ruler and the text itself as a local monitor In showing this he extends the insights of Michel Foucault who urged us to view power not merely as something imposed from above by force but as something that can entwine and shape us from below This book provides an invaluable exploration of Deuteronomy of interest to scholars and students working on Deuteronomy itself and biblical studies more generally as well as on questions of ancient politics and governmentality Foucault studies and the history and material culture of the Ancient Near East

The Idea of Creation William Caldwell,1909 The Banner of Israel ,1925 Race J. Kameron Carter,2008-09-02 In Race A Theological Account J Kameron Carter meditates on the multiple legacies implicated in the production of a racialized world and that still mark how we function in it and think about ourselves These are the legacies of colonialism and empire political theories of the state anthropological theories of the human and philosophy itself from the eighteenth century Enlightenment to the present Carter s claim is that Christian theology and the signal transformation it along with Christianity underwent is at the heart of these legacies In that transformation Christian anti Judaism biologized itself so as to racialize itself As a result and with the legitimation of Christian theology Christianity became the cultural property of the West the religious ground of white supremacy and global hegemony In short Christianity became white The racial imagination is thus a particular kind of theological problem Not content only to describe this problem Carter constructs a way forward for Christian theology Through engagement with figures as disparate in outlook and as varied across the historical landscape as Immanuel Kant Frederick Douglass Jarena Lee Michel Foucault Cornel West Albert Raboteau Charles Long James Cone Irenaeus of Lyons Gregory of Nyssa and Maximus the Confessor Carter reorients the whole of Christian theology bringing it into the twenty first century Neither a simple reiteration of Black Theology nor another expression of the new theological orthodoxies this groundbreaking book will be a major contribution to contemporary Christian theology with ramifications in other areas of the humanities

The Creation of the State of Israel Myra Immell, 2009-10-16 Tensions in the Middle East are due to a number of reasons with the creation of Israel being among them Give readers a much needed survey of several lively debates relating to the creation of the state of Israel Essay sources include The Times of London The Jerusalem Post and The Higher Arab Committee While essayist Jamal el Hussein argues that Palestine should not be partitioned Abba Hillel Silver argues that Palestine should be partitioned Sequenced in the pro versus con format these essays will activate your readers critical thinking skills Once seating reader s deeply in the debates personal narratives are then shared by those living with the issues of disharmony between Palestine and Israel Narratives include a student celebrating the dawn of the Jewish state and a young immigrant who joins the Haganah
