

The Creation of Patriarchy

Gerda Lerner

“By making the term 'man' subsume 'woman' and arrogate to itself the representation of all humanity, men have built a conceptual error of vast proportion into all of their thought... Everything that explains the world has in fact explained a world that does not exist, a world in which men are at the center of the human enterprise and women are at the margin 'helping' them. Such a world does not exist - never has.”

Creation Of Patriarchy:

The Creation of Patriarchy Gerda Lerner, 1986 A radical reinterpretation of Western civilization argues that male dominance has resulted from and can be ended by historical process and identifies key developments

The Creation of Patriarchy: The creation of feminist consciousness Gerda Lerner, 1986 A major new work by a leading historian and pioneer in women's studies The Creation of Patriarchy is a radical reconceptualization of Western civilization that makes gender central to its analysis Gerda Lerner argues that male dominance over women is not natural or biological but the product of an historical development begun in the second millennium B C in the Ancient Near East As patriarchy as a system of organizing society was established historically she contends it can also be ended by the historical process Focusing on the contradiction between women's central role in creating society and their marginality in the meaning giving process of definition and interpretation Lerner explores such fascinating questions as What can account for women's exclusion from the historical process What could explain the long delay more than 3 500 years in women's coming to consciousness of their own subordinate position She goes back to the cultures of the earliest known civilizations those of the ancient Near East to discover the origins of the major gender metaphors of Western civilization Using historical literary archaeological and artistic evidence she then traces the development of these ideas symbols and metaphors and their incorporation into Western civilization as the basis of patriarchal gender relations Publisher description

The Creation of Feminist Consciousness Gerda Lerner, 1993 In its emphasis on the force of ideas the struggle of women for inclusion in the concept of the Divine the repeated attempts by women to form supportive networks and its analysis of the preconditions for the formation of political theories of liberation this brilliant work charts new ground for historical studies the history of ideas and feminist theory Jacket

The WomanSource Catalog & Review Ilene Rosoff, 1995 Life at Four Corners Carol Coburn, 1992 Defined less by geography than by demographic character Block Kansas in many ways exemplifies the prevalent yet seldom scrutinized ethnic religion based community of the rural Midwest Physically small the town sprang up around four corners formed by crossroads Spiritually strong and cohesive it became the educational and cultural center for generations of German Lutheran families In this book Carol Coburn analyzes the powerful combination of those ethnic and religious institutions that effectively resisted assimilation for nearly 80 years only to succumb to the influences of the outside world during the 1930s and 1940s Emphasizing the formal and informal education provided by the church school and family she examines the total process of how values identities and all aspects of culture were transmitted from generation to generation

Communities of Discourse Gary D. Schmidt, William J. Vande Kopple, 1993 This collection of essays drawn from five different disciplines history the arts philosophy science and social science represents the kinds of writing that have characterized each discourse community and illustrates both the clashes and agreements within those communities about the nature of effective writing

Reproducing The World Mary O'Brien, 2019-07-11 This book offers a small contribution to ongoing feminist struggles to advance and support the reproduction and transformation of collective being in the world It explores ethnocentrism preoccupation with theoretical issues and a celibate indifference to or repression of sexual issues

Historical Studies Journal, 1996 Origin and Nature of Ancient Indian Buddhism K. T. S. Sarao, 2010 Description This book offers a serious exploration of the many different aspects of ancient Indian Buddhism In the recent past controversy relating to date of the Buddha has been resurrected The author has discussed this issue in detail and has suggested his own date for the Mahaparinibbana Buddhist attitude towards women and ahimsa has also been analyzed from a new perspective The book examines in detail the background to the origin of Buddhism especially the role of iron in it The issue as to what extent Buddhism was an urban religion has also been discussed Most of the arguments in the book have been based on extensive data collected from the Pali Tipitaka This data is provided in the form of appendices at the end of the book

The Body of God Sallie McFague, 1993 A very distinctive and important new option for Christian theology McFague proposes in a clear and challenging way a theological program based on what she calls the organic model for conceiving God

Subversive Thoughts, Authentic Passions Bonnie Kreps, 1990 Green History of Religion Anand Veeraraj, 2006 Perspectives, 1993 Blake, 1996 An illustrated quarterly Evidence on Her Own Behalf Elizabeth A. Say, 1990-11-28 Most theological language which is available is based on men's stories stories told about men's lives and interpreted from a distinctly masculine perspective In such stories women by and large are marginal characters When they occasionally do figure in a more central role the meaning of their actions is explained from a male viewpoint Before women can begin to ask questions about the meaning of their experience they must understand what this experience has been and this requires the telling of their own stories in their own voice Say's book draws on women's history literary theory and narrative theology to create a foundation for a critique of contemporary communitarian ethics It incorporates a refinement of the theory of the feminization of religion and education in nineteenth century Britain Women Artists News, 1994
