

10 STEPS TO PRACTICE RADICAL ACCEPTANCE

1

Recognize a resistance to reality. This might look like when you're asking yourself, "Why is this happening?"

2

Remind yourself that a bad situation is happening but there is no way to change it.

3

Think of how this reality came to be, and what choices and decisions led to this moment. You might begin this process by thinking, "this is how things happened."

4

Practice acceptance with your mind and your body. This might look like completing an affirmation, or a mantra about acceptance, or visualizing acceptance.

5

Practice opposite action by engaging in behaviors that show that you've accepted reality. What would you do if you had accepted the facts? Do those things, even if it feels a little forced in the present.

6

Forecast that there are situations that are unacceptable in the world — and then accept them.

7

Practice mindfulness and become aware of how your body is handling acceptance. By addressing these bodily sensations, you're more likely to accept the situation.

8

Allow yourself to feel grief, sadness, and disappointment without judgment, as those are natural reactions to negative situations. Accept that these feelings will happen.

9

Reframe the pain of arising emotions as being part of the healing process. These emotions, which are natural, are an integral part of moving forward and of practicing resilience.

10

Complete a pros and cons list if you still find yourself struggling with accepting the situation that you're in.
