A Search for God in Time and Memory John S. Dunne, 1967      A Search for God in Time and Memory John S. Dunne, 1975      Looking for God in Time and Memory J. G. Kristo, 1991-11-26 This book is a novel way of reading the Confessions by Augustine the captivating self assessment of a middle aged man from the fourth century It is an examination of how individual traits influence the ways of talking about and of relating to God The developmental psychology complemented by the psychology of midlife assists in the portrayal of Augustine Professors teaching spirituality and philosophical theology and Augustinian scholars will be attracted by this book      The Search for God in Time and Memory in the Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge Richard Jeffrey Mize, 1971      Time, Memory, and the Politics of Contingency Smita A. Rahman, 2014-07-11 In recent years there has been an increased attention to temporality in political theory and such attention is sorely needed For too long political theory with the exception of occasional phenomenological forays has remained grounded in a particular experience of time as linear and sequential This book aims to unsettle the dominant framework by putting time itself and the experience of time in everyday life at the center of its critical analysis Smita Rahman focuses on the experience of time as one where past present and future intermingle with each other and refuse to adhere to a sequential structure Rather than trying to tame the flux of time this book places this out of joint experience of time at the center of its analysis of global politics Rahman takes the highly abstract concept of time and decenters it to speak to a wide range of political issues across disciplines She does so by exposing the cultural construction of the foundational concept of time in political theory and attending closely to the challenges of cultural incommensurability that it encounters in a globalized world of difference Specifically the book looks at interrogation practices in Afghanistan the challenges of coping with the burdens of collective memory in Algeria South Africa and Rwanda the difficulty of uncritically applying such a framework to the Muslim world through the language of secularism and finally at the beginnings of democratic emergence in Bangladesh to explore a politics of contingency By focusing on issues of contemporary global politics through the lens of political theory this book draws on literature across disciplines and explores the complex image of time by engaging the work of thinkers for whom time and memory have emerged as a critical issue of analysis and unpacking the politics of contingency that emerge from such a reading The book's new insights on political temporality will interest scholars of contemporary political theory comparative political theory critical theory human rights conflict studies and religion and politics      God's Grandeur David Robinson, 2007 Visual arts Musical arts Literary arts Aesthetics and education Contemporary forms

Bild-ing a Memory Model of God Kwang-Jin Oh, 2024-05-03 Have you ever wondered what the image of God means theologically Mountains of material have been written about this topic spanning ages but is it just an idea or is it something physically real This book answers those questions through ancient modern and scientific theories of memory in a Wesleyan anthropology Bild ing a Memory Model of God is a unique attempt at combining the fields of theology and neuroscience

Towards a Theology of Story John J. Navone, 1977      The Immortality of Memory William Lefroy, 1898      Studies in Formative Spirituality, 1985      Commonweal, 1970      Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1971      The Aryan Path Sophia Wadia, 1976      The Sunday-school Times, 1889      With God on Our Side Steven Félix-Jäger, 2017-01-11

Rock and roll is more than just music Rock is a culture and an ideology which carries its own ethos It is forcefully countercultural and exists as a bane in the sight of dominant Western culture As rock engages and critiques culture it invariably encounters issues of meaning that are existential and theological A transformational theology of rock begins with those existential and theological issues raised by and within rock music With God On Our Side attempts to respond to these queries in a way that is faithful to the work of the kingdom of God on earth by mining our long theological tradition and seeing what cohesive responses can be made to the issues raised by rock music At its best rock acknowledges there is something wrong with the world raises awareness of marginalized voices and offers an alternative mode of existence within our present reality By teasing out the theological issues found in rock music this book synthesizes the findings to create a distinctive cultural theology that is sensitive to the plight of the marginalized in the West In this way the book offers a way forward towards a transformational theology of rock and roll      Faith and Freedom, 1977      Ave Maria, 1969      Hope and Trust in Times of Global Despair and Mistrust Robert Petkovšek, Bojan Alec, 2023-10-06 Hope and trust are key problems of the present world and should therefore be at the centre of interest of science and society Climate change pandemics dangerous global and social polarization people's distrust of politics and institutions social isolation and the rise of mental problems in developed countries of material prosperity are problems that we will only be able to cope with if we know how to cultivate hope and trust The authors deal with them from various aspects of the humanities philosophy theology religious studies intellectual history cognitive science psychology and psychotherapy This gives the book an interdisciplinary character

Religion in America George C. Bedell, Leo Sandon, Charles Wellborn, 1982 This comprehensive narrative account of religion in America from 1607 through the present depicts the religious life of the American people within the context of American society It addresses topics ranging from the European Puritan origins of American religious thought the ramifications of the Great Awakening the effect of nationhood on religious practice and the shifting religious configuration of the late 20th century      Love's Mind John S. Dunne, 1993 Do we love with a love we know or with a love we do not know This question posed to author John S Dunne in a dream and its answer prompts Dunne to describe in Love's Mind the journey one takes in contemplating and coming to know love a journey that involves moving from the loneliness and restless longing of the human heart through spiritual friendship to the ultimate spiritual destination of love of God and union of love with God The compass one uses on this personal journey is the way of contemplation For Dunne the contemplative life is a dimension of every human life and should not be limited to the monastic way of life instead he considers it the missing dimension in our lives and times times where violence has supplanted spiritual contemplation and left individuals deprived of the joy and challenge of the spiritual journey that ultimately leads to a union of love with God As Dunne describes this journey three features of the contemplative way of life emerge the way of words the way of music and the way of spiritual friendship He explores each with characteristic eloquence and introspection drawing on his experiences of giving spiritual retreats his presentations on violence and the contemplative life and his insights on contemplation as the missing dimension in American life In addition Dunne considers the contemplations of Aquinas Aristotle and Augustine and draws on a rich store of literary sources in harmony with his view that art literature and music point to God Ultimately his insights lead him to a vision like Augustine s of the city of God a city of the heart where contemplation takes the place of violence Love s Mind is the story of how unknowing love becomes knowing love when one comes to the realization that our being in love may be God loving in us and that our blind love may be God s unconditional love in us BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
