A Shaft Of Sunlight

Lisa Goldfarb

A Shaft Of Sunlight:

A Shaft of Sunlight Philip Mason, 1978 A Shaft of Sunlight Abhijat Joshi, 1999 In a Shaft of Sunlight Hannah Aitken, 1947 A Shaft of Sunlight Philip Mason, 1978 The Four Adventures of Richard Hannay John Buchan, 1930

After the Storm, a Shaft of Sunlight Tony Howarth, 2025 The overused adage to write what you know has never been better applied than in this collection from nonagenarian poet Tony Howarth for there seemingly is little he does not know after a lifetime of experience as journalist traveler dramatist educator and acutely attuned observer of the world around him His subjects range all over the literal map his concerns spanning the global and the quotidian He writes of the vicissitudes of aging but takes inspiration from an even older neighbor who advised him if I stop I ll be lost I ll curl up and die but that isn t how he did it first he died and then he stopped Howarth isn t stopping my mind wanders spins a daydream looking at eternity His title describes the moment of solstice at Chaco Canyon the shaft of light through a peephole celebrating the ceaseless return of the sun Likewise for this poet even as he surveys his often turbulent life where today is both yesterday and tomorrow he finds peace with the endlessness of time and his vista is before him and us I want to create a glory that s glowing in the now

Unexpected Affinities Lisa Goldfarb, 2018-05-30 The book studies the impact of Stevensian and Valeryan poetics and symbolist poetics more broadly on a range of Anglo American poets in untypical fashion Pairing poets who are not usually studied in their relation to one another reveals mutuality and dissimilitude Chapter I looks at Stevens and Valery from the vantage point of the senses as opposed to the more usual lens of their similar cerebral or philosophical temperaments Although critics have largely and justifiably seen Stevens and Eliot in oppositional terms Stevens proclaims them dead opposites Lisa Goldfarb asks what happens when we look at them from the vantage point of their mutual interest in creating a musical poetics Auden is principally known for his distaste for the symbolists and their magical poetics yet he reserves special praise for Valery and considers him as his poetic mentor Chapter III studies their poetics side by side With Stevens and Audens mutual appreciation of Valery as a starting point Chapter IV turns to a closer comparative study of Auden and Stevens two poets who have traditionally been seen as operating in distinct poetic spheres While Elizabeth Bishop famously eludes categorization in terms of poetic school or affiliation a fifth chapter addresses her poetic music in relation to French symbolist poetics one of the many poetic schools she admired A sixth and final chapter examines Stevens musical legacy in large part derived from the symbolists and addresses the work of a range of modern and contemporary poets with a final section devoted to the work of contemporary poet Susan Howe

The sun, its planets and their satellites Edmund Ledger, 1882 Popular Astronomy, 1915 Advances in Technical Diagnostics Anna Timofiejczuk, Bogusław Edward Łazarz, Fakher Chaari, Rafał Burdzik, 2017-09-04 This book provides readers with an overview of recent theories and methods for machinery diagnostics applied to machinery maintenance Each chapter accepted after a rigorous peer review process reports on a selected original piece of work discussed at the International Congress on Technical Diagnostics ICTD2016 held on September 12 16 2016 in Gliwice Poland The book covers a broad range of topics including machines operating in non stationary conditions and examples from different industrial fields of mechanical civil computer and electronic engineering as well as the medical food automotive and mining industries By presenting state of the art diagnostic solutions and discussing important industrial issues the book offers a valuable resource to both academics and professionals as well as a bridge to facilitate communication and collaboration between the two groups The Book of Sun-dials Mrs. Alfred Gatty,1900
