A Place Called Armageddon Letters From The Great War:

A Place Called Armageddon Michael Moynihan, 1975      Great War and Women's Consciousness Claire M. Tylee, 1989-12-15 The literary memory of the Great War is dominated by the writings of Sassoon and Owen Graves and Blunden The voice is a male voice This book is a study of what women wrote about militarism and world war 1      The Battles of the British Expeditionary Forces, 1914-1915 Fred R. van Hartesveldt, 2005-04-30 In this valuable resource over 1 000 annotated sources from Great Britain France and Germany offer a historiographical reference for study of the British army at the beginning and in the first battles of World War I Unique to this bibliography is the comprehensive coverage of sources resulting in a more complete picture of the circumstances of activities of the British Expeditionary Force BEF Sources include coverage of the BEF s military role as well as background information about domestic military considerations and Allied and enemy efforts This volume will support researchers and students in their efforts to find out what the Expeditionary Force s contributions were in World War I and for expanding their knowledge of the Great War and British military history In this valuable resource over 1 000 annotated sources from Great Britain France and Germany offer a historiographical reference for study of the British army at the beginning and in the first battles of World War I Unique to this bibliography is the comprehensive coverage of sources and it results in a more complete picture of the circumstances of activities of the British Expeditionary Force BEF Sources include coverage of the BEF s military role as well as background information about domestic military considerations and Allied and enemy efforts This volume will support researchers and students in their efforts to find out what the Expeditionary Force s contributions were in World War I and for expanding their knowledge of the Great War and British military history The volume includes four chapters of historiographical essays discussings the interpretations and controversies that surround the performance and leadership of the BEF in 1914 1915 The essays direct readers to the major sources that support various ideas and indicate gaps in the historiography of the subject Following the historiographical essays is an annotated bibliography of more than 1 000 sources that are relevant to the study of the BEF      The Dardanelles Campaign, 1915 Fred R. van Hartesveldt, 1997-11-20 The passage of time has not slowed the production of books and articles about World War I This volume provides a guide to the historiography and bibliography of the Dardanelles Campaign including the Gallipoli invasion It focuses on military history but also provides information on political histories that give significant attention to the handling of the Dardanelles Campaign The opening section of the book provides background information about the campaign discusses the major sources of information and lays out the major interpretative disputes A comprehensive annotated bibliography follows This book nicely complements the two earlier volumes on World War I battles The Battle of Jutland by Eugene Razor and The Battles of the Somme by Fred R van Hartesveldt      Collision of Empires A. D. Harvey, 1993-07-01 The only previous war to match the world wars of the twentieth century in scale and impact was the French War of 1793 1815 This book is the first book to compare these conflicts which together shaped the history of the modern world A D Harvey relates the causes conduct and outcome of these wars to the fundamental nature of the societies which fought them Political decisions economic power and social attitudes interfaced with the demands of military technology to determine the outcome of each case Britain is the centre of focus but is seen against a background of the other combatants Harvey s ability to make large scale generalisations is backed up by a wealth of fascinating and carefully documented detail making this outstanding and exceptionally well written book a pleasure to read The author has tackled a huge subject and has not been afraid to face up to either its complexities or its implications By asking new questions and using a range of unfamiliar sources this book provides an unusually profound analysis not only of these wars but also of the nature of modern society and of our understanding of the past Gallipoli Nigel Steel,1998-08-12

Gallipoli tells of the disastrous campaign at Gallipoli in 1915 when the allies failed to knock Turkey out of the war With then and now photographs the book provides detailed historical descriptions of the area and the events all of which will appeal to the armchair historian and the intrepid visitor to the sites It will prove an indispensable companion The Great War Reader James Hannah,2000 In this collection of World War I literature memoirists short story writers novelists poets playwrights and historians write of a time that witnessed the death of the pastoral tones of the 19th century and the birth of the modern world 6 photos A Subject Bibliography of the First World War A. G. S. Enser,1990 This is a bibliography of books published in English between 1914 and 1987 on the First World War There are approximately 6800 entries indexed by author or title listed under 350 subject headings The subject headings range in alphabetical order from addresses and speeches to Zimmerman Each entry gives bibliographical details where possible any changes in title between United Kingdom and United States of America editions and cross references to other relevant subject headings For quick reference there is an index of authors and an index of subject headings While this bibliography aims to be a reference work for the scholar and researcher it is also intended to be for more general use A Bibliography of British History Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index Remembering, We Forget Hilda D. Spear,1979 Verdun and the Somme Harro Grabolle,2004 Analysis of British and German prose fiction written between 1916 and 1937 with different ideological points of view Authors represented include from Germany Fritz von Unruh Josef M Wehner Werner Beumelburg Arnold Zweig and from Britain Alec J Dawson Alan P Herbert Arthur D Gristwood Frederic Manning and David Jones The United States Catalog ,1921 The United States Catalog Eleanor E. Hawkins,1921 Monthly Bulletin San Francisco Public Library,1918 The United States Catalog; Books in Print January 1, 1912 Marion Effie Potter,1921 The United States Catalog Supplement, January 1918-June 1921 Eleanor E. Hawkins,1921 Monthly Bulletin San Francisco Free Public Library,1917     The Cross and the Trenches Richard Schweitzer,2003-05-30 Drawing on the testimony of over 500 British and American soldiers the author provides an in depth account of topics such as soldiers prayers and biblical readings as well as religious doubts     Books on the Great War Frederick William Theodor Lange,W.
