A Poet's House Poetry:

Seventeenth-century English Poetry Robert Cecil Bald, 1959 Many-Storied House George Ella Lyon, 2013-08-15 Born in the small eastern Kentucky coal mining town of Harlan George Ella Lyon began her career with Mountain a chapbook of poems She has since published many more books in multiple genres and for readers of all ages but poetry remains at the heart of her work Many Storied House is her fifth collection While teaching aspiring writers Lyon asked her students to write a poem based on memories rooted in a house where they had lived Working on the assignment herself Lyon began a personal journey writing many poems for each room In this intimate book she strives to answer lingering questions about herself and her family Here I stand at the beginning she writes in the opening lines of the volume with more questions than answers Collectively the poems tell the sixty eight year long story of the house beginning with its construction by Lyon's grandfather and culminating with the poet's memories of bidding farewell to it after her mother's death Moving provocative and heartfelt Lyon's poetic excavations evoke more than just stock and stone they explore the nature of memory and relationships as well as the innermost architecture of love family and community A poignant memoir in poems Many Storied House is a personal and revealing addition to George Ella Lyon's body of work Design for a House Jonathan Holden, 1972 The Little Old House Anna Wickham, 2023-07-18 Escape into the world of poetry with this charming collection by Anna Wickham Filled with vivid imagery emotional depth and musical language these poems will transport you to another place and time Whether you're a seasoned poetry lover or a newcomer to the genre this book is sure to delight and inspire This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant House Music: Poems Ellen Kaufman, 2014-02-07 In Ellen Kaufman's House Music which was a finalist for the 2012 Able Muse Book Award the everyday is remade into a luminous tapestry of intricate wordplay delightful sound effects and transcendent moments Her observational skill about the commonplace is revelatory with fresh insights on such wide ranging subjects as construction work native and exotic flora and fauna a sewing machine and a piano handed down through generations and a momentous visit to the doctor's office House Music is a wonderful debut collection from a uniquely inspired poet PRAISE FOR HOUSE MUSIC Ellen Kaufman is a master of sight her explorations encourage us to see the ordinary beauty in homely scenes Equally important for any poet worth her salt she is also a master of sounds She fills her poems with mouth watering phrases like dollops and fillips of tulips and delicious appreciations of domestic details Her sly and understated villanelle A Flemish Still Life epitomizes Kaufman's ars poetica as well as her observational skill No effort s wasted if you aim to please it begins It ends with the gentle command Aim to please Kaufman and her poems aim to please and succeed in doing so Willard Spiegelman I ve been reading Ellen Kaufman s poetry for many years now There s no other experience quite like it Her language is taut and her aim unerring her poems fly straight and true Part of this has to do with technical mastery She is a virtuoso of meter and rhyme and her deep understanding of how structure works in a sonnet or a villanelle for example results in poems that combine pattern or repetition with an astonishingly singular vision Jennifer Barber from the foreword The intelligence behind Ellen Kaufman s wonderfully realized House Music is poised and observant its reflections unfolding in sinuous sentences that are effortlessly elegant and deceptively plainspoken The subjects and themes of her poems are various the family romance an encounter with a panhandler the first moon landing often taking the form of enigmatic vignettes and fables like Sonatina and Thirteenth Night pervaded by a sense of the fragile contingency of life House Music is a brilliant and powerful debut John Koethe Ellen Kaufman s distinguished poems achieve their purposes by modulating a powerful self containment a powerful and wise human awareness by means of a chorus of exquisite and luxurious local effects They are astonishing acts of balance intelligence precision eloquence vision imagination and grace Vijay Seshadri

The American House Poem, 1945-2021 Walt Hunter,2023-09-19 The house is perhaps the most recognizable emblem of the American ideals of self making prosperity stability domesticity and upward mobility Yet over the years from 1945 2021 the American house becomes more famous for the betrayal of those hopes than for their fulfilment first through the segregation of cities and public housing then through the expansion of private credit that lays the ground for the subprime mortgage crisis of the early twenty first century Walt Hunter argues that as access to housing expands to include a greater share of the US population the house emerges as a central metaphor for the poetic imagination From the kitchenette of Gwendolyn Brooks to the duplex of Jericho Brown and from the suburban imagination of Adrienne Rich to the epic constructions of James Merrill the American house poem represents the changing abilities of US poets to imagine new forms of life while also building on the past In The American House Poem 1945 2021 Hunter focuses on poets who register the unevenly distributed pressures of successive housing crises by rewriting older poetic forms Writing about the materials tools and plans for making a house these poets express the tensions between making their lives into art and freeing their lives from inherited constraints and conditions

The Light in Our Houses Al Maginnes,2000-05-01 Remarkable for their dark sharp wit their stylistic unity and their combination of sweetness and risk the poems in The Light in Our Houses probe the intersection of public and private history and visit the way stories are told what we have named history was once only the braided rivers of people s lives currents that brimmed fast and dangerous then emptied into the wide blank spill of ocean Voicing a disdain for conclusions the gaudy clothes we wrap narrative in Al Maginnes writes poems that carry the weight of parables

Sunday Houses the Sunday House Elizabeth Hughey,2007-04 2006 Iowa Poetry Prize winner In Sunday Houses the Sunday House Elizabeth Hughey embraces the possibility that we can learn as much from objects as we can from other people from the inanimate as much as the animate Each poem descends upon a place and a time takes a few notes and then leaves quietly without slamming any doors Sunday Houses the Sunday House reveals what the world is like when your attention is focused elsewhere when your head is turned the other way In ineffably beautiful verse Hughey captures moments in time and place with confidence but without being judgmental Although it may seem that the scope of these poems is rather small a good party a couple of eggs a housekeeper s daydream they reveal both a deep intelligence and a spirit of whimsy Gertrude Stein wrote that she wanted to be drunk with nouns and in a sense that is what Hughey has accomplished here

Of the Great House Allen R.
